

Educational Leadership

Doctoral Program for teaching & learning (Ed.D.)

Ed.D. Cohort beginning at Romeoville Campus in fall 2012

Scholarship Opportunity

Lewis University is dedicated to Catholic and Lasallian education and prepares qualified Joliet Diocesan teachers/administrators and Lasallian educators in the Chicagoland area for Catholic school leadership.

Lewis' College of Education is offering two scholarship opportunities for Catholic/Lasallian future school leaders seeking an Ed.D. in Educational Leadership with a Moral and Ethical Framework.

Scholarship recipients will receive 50% off Ed.D. tuition for duration of program – Type 75 or Superintendent Endorsement can also be obtained through this program by taking additional coursework – five classes for the Type 75 and three classes for the Superintendent Endorsement.

Applicant Requirements/Application Due Date

Applicant must currently be either:

- Joliet Diocese teacher/administrator or
- Lasallian educator in the Chicagoland area committed to be a future Catholic school leader

The scholarship recipients must meet all criteria for admission into the Ed.D. program and have a recommendation from their current school principal and/or president. Interviews will be held with finalists for the scholarship.

All scholarship applicants must apply to the Ed.D. program by June 1, 2012 and complete the Catholic/Lasallian scholarship application.
