The MSOT program prepares intellectually engaged, ethically grounded, and socially responsible occupational therapists. In doing so, our students and faculty work to improve quality of life and occupational engagement for all individuals, groups, communities, and populations through education, scholarship, service and advocacy.