Terms of Agreement

- I understand that I must be registered for a fulltime course load for the Fall semester no later than July 1. If I am not registered for a fulltime course load by July 1, I will be dropped from my Fall room assignment. Any exceptions to this policy must be approved by the Office of the Bursar prior to July 1.
- I understand that if I fail to check into housing by the second day of classes, my housing assignment may be cancelled.
- I understand that I am assured housing for the times classes are in session. Only students who are working, practicing in-season athletes, out of state or international will be allowed to remain over the break periods and additional charges will be assessed for the Spring, December and Summer breaks. There is no charge to remain on campus during Fall, Thanksgiving and/or Easter breaks. Students must register for break housing according to break housing memorandums.
- I understand that I must purchase a meal plan as a resident student.
- I understand that I am responsible for abiding by all University policies and directives of the Office of Student Services.
- I understand that if I am assigned to North Hall, I must abide by special suite behavioral and upkeep etiquette and that vandalism or inappropriate behavior may result in my removal from North Hall and/or a referral to Lewis University's judicial system.
- I understand any damage to personal property is not the responsibility of the University. This applies no matter the cause for the damage or loss. Resident students are encouraged to obtain their own insurance coverage.
- I understand that if I am left in a double, triple or quad room alone, I will be offered the option of living with a student in the same situation or "buying-out" the room to keep it a single at a prorated amount. I will not be able to remain in a double, triple or quad room alone, without paying the single room rate.
- I understand the University reserves the right to make changes in space/Residence Hall assignments and change living arrangements in its Residence Halls whenever it is deemed necessary.
- I understand that I must maintain full time student status at Lewis University in order to live in the residence halls. (12 credits for undergraduates and 6 hours for graduate students)
- I understand that the University residence halls exist in support of the academic process and that I am required to meet academic requirements in order to live in the residence halls.
- I understand that the Office of Residence Life reserves the right to assign roommates. Every effort is made to assign roommates based on similar life-style characteristics.
- I understand that I must check out of housing within 24 hours of my last final in both the Fall and Spring semesters.
- I understand that a $100.00 payment is required at the time of application and is only refunded if I cancel my housing application before July 1.
- I understand that the $100.00 payment is applied to my University account balance.
- I understand that canceling my housing application after July 1 (Fall semester applicants) or after January 1 (Spring semester applicants) will result in a $250.00 assessment.
- I understand that withdrawing from housing after the first day of classes in either semester will result in a $500.00 assessment, plus a prorated charge for room, board, and amenities fee.
- No refunds will be given after the completion of the sixth week classes and the $500.00 assessment will apply.

Room assignments are issued upon receipt of this completed application and a payment of $100.00 in the Business Office. Space is assigned on a first come, first serve basis.

Lewis University will not make or change room assignments based on race, national origin, creed, religion, or sexual orientation.

$100 payment required (in the Business Office).
The application will be accepted by the Office of Residence Life once it is stamped "paid."
