Ready to go home?

What to do before you leave

Room inspections will begin upon the departure of each student, starting no later than 6pm. The hall staff will inspect the room to insure that each student has done the following:

- ✓ unplugged all electrical appliances - including power strips, computers, telephones and answering machines.
- ✓ KEEP micro fridges and/or full size refrigerators plugged in
- ✓ turned off the lights (& heat where applicable)
- ✓ locked all doors and windows and
- ✓ emptied all trash cans

Any policy violations will be documented and the appropriate fines assessed. Policy violations may also be referred for judicial action (Break Appeal Process below).

LEWIS UNIVERSITY IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY LOST, DAMAGED OR STOLEN ARTICLES. RESIDENTS ARE ENCOURAGED TO REMOVE VALUABLES FROM THEIR ROOMS DURING THE BREAK AND LOCK THEIR ROOM/SECTION DOORS WHEN LEAVING.

Need to appeal a Break charge?

There will be a Break Housing Appeals Board that will convene for two sessions following each break. The board will hear individual appeals and make a recommendation about whether or not the fine should be upheld, waived or amended. Appeals will only be accepted when the appeals board is in session.

Appeals for Easter Break will be heard on Tuesday, April 26th at 4 pm and on Wednesday, April 27th at 1pm. These meetings will occur in the Morton Boston Room within the Student Union. Any student wishing to appeal a fine from Easter Break must do so in person at one of the listed meetings above.

NO APPEALS WILL BE CONSIDERED OUTSIDE OF THESE TIMES OR BEYOND THE FINAL APPEAL DATE.
