Opportunities for Engagement

SPRING 2018

This year’s Lasallian reflection focuses on the creation of sustainable communities and the radical changes in demographics and the environment. It also encourages Lasallians to respond to these issues and offers questions for personal and community reflection.

MEMORIAL FOR BROTHER JAMES MILLER, FSC
MON • FEB12
3:30 PM • Brother James Miller Chapel
Located in Convocation Hall – St. Charles Borromeo Center

LASALLIAN LUNCH – A DISCUSSION ABOUT LASALLIANS WITHOUT LIMITS
WED • MAR21
NOON • President’s Dining Room
Participants will enjoy lunch while discussing Lasallian Reflection No. 3 “Lasallians Without Limits” hosted by Dr. Kurt Schackmuth, Vice President for Mission. Visit lewisu.edu/omi for more information.

SIMULATIONS OF THE REFUGEE CRISIS
MON • MAR26
9AM-1PM • 5PM-7PM • D’Arcy Great Room
Simulation of the refugee crisis will allow participants to follow a refugee family on their journey to safety. The simulation sessions will take about 50 minutes, including a reflection activity at the conclusion.
Contact Sr. Emily Brabham, OSF if you would like to arrange for your class to participate in the simulations outside of these scheduled times.

SEEEING WITH THE EYES OF CHRIST
WED • APRIL11
3 PM • D’Arcy Great Room
Homelessness…it’s more than just a talk. It’s a lived experience. Join us at this life-changing presentation featuring John Donahue-Grossman

THE HEARTBREAK OF HUMAN MIGRATION: MERCY WITHOUT LIMITS
TUES • MAR27
2–5 PM • AS 158A
Viewing of the documentary, The Human Flow with introduction by Hind Makki, author at Patheos.com and the Founder and Curator of Side Entrance

All faculty, staff, and students are welcome
For more information about these any engagement opportunities, contact Margaret Grabowski at (815) 836-5944 or grabowma@lewisu.edu.

Visit the Office of Mission and Identity's webpage at lewisu.edu/omi and click on the “Lasallian Reflection Series” link on the left.