Professional Licensure Disclosure

Master's of Science in Occupational Therapy

Lewis University has compiled the following resources to ensure students have information about educational requirements for professional licensure and certification in all U.S. states. The charts below provide links to state licensing agencies and boards of higher education, and reports whether Lewis's program in Occupational Therapy meets, does not meet, or it is not yet been determined if it meets licensure or certification requirements for each state.

The information below relates specifically to Lewis's program in Occupational Therapy. Requirements to become licensed vary by state. Additional training, field work, or examinations may be required. Students interested in becoming a licensed Occupational Therapist, in Illinois or another U.S. state or territory, should inform themselves about licensure requirements in the state or territory in which they intend to live and work.
