

STUDENT GUIDE TO INTERNSHIPS

What is an internship?

- One semester (spring, summer, or fall) work experience or project (may be repeated)
- Must be major/and or career related with intentional learning goals
- Minimum of 120 hours per semester (full or part-time)
- May, or may not, be for academic credit (additional hours required for academic credit)
- Opportunities may be paid or unpaid

How does an internship experience benefit me?

- Gain professional experience before graduation
- See classroom concepts and theories applied in real work situations
- Network with professionals in the field
- Develop and affirm your career goals
- Build your resume with career related experience

Student responsibilities in the workplace:

- Strive for a high level of personal and professional growth
- Demonstrate professionalism at all times and follow policies and expectations of the organization
- Complete work assignments within the designated time requirements
- Resolve workplace concerns through the proper channels and notify Career Services immediately (or academic advisor if earning academic credit) if a situation warrants special attention

Student eligibility:

- Be an enrolled Lewis University student
- Have completed 30+ hours of college coursework
- Have a minimum 2.0/4.0 GPA
- Employers or academic departments awarding credit may have additional requirements
