

Club Sports Interest

The Club Sports program provides students with a unique opportunity to build, develop, and enhance their leadership, organizational, and management skills in a fun, safe, and supportive learning environment. Participants in Club Sports at Lewis University involve themselves in competition, community, and building connections that enhance the Club Sports student-athlete experience at Lewis University through the Department of Student Recreation, Fitness and Wellness and the Lewis University community.

Inactive Clubs vs Needs a Leader

Some clubs are inactive as they do not have a leader or members. Some clubs were active last year but need a leader to remain active this year. Once there is a leader and enough members, the club can become active again.
