INTRODUCTION

The Jeanne Clery Campus Safety Act (Clery Act) (20 U.S.C. § 1092(f)) is a federal law requiring colleges and universities to disclose information about crime on and near their respective campuses in addition to other information related to campus security and safety. In addition, as required by the Higher Education Opportunity Act, this report includes information regarding fire prevention, fire protection systems, and campus fire statistics. This report is designed to familiarize students, employees, and prospective students and their families with safety and security at the various Lewis University campus sites.

Lewis University strives to provide a safe and secure environment for students, staff, and visitors. As a microcosm of society, it is not immune to the problems that occur in most communities. The potential for criminal activity to occur at any Lewis University campus site is a reality that must be taken seriously. It is only possible to maintain safety and security when everyone- students, employees, and visitors- takes an active role in crime prevention. All members of the University community are encouraged to take the time to read the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report, which can be accessed and printed from the University Police website: www.lewisu.edu/police.

For further information on campus safety or to obtain a printed copy of this report, call LUPD at (815) 836-5222 or email lewispolice@lewisu.edu.

THE LEWIS UNIVERSITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

A Message from the Chief

The Lewis University Police Department is committed to supporting students throughout their academic and personal journeys through a community-policing model grounded in trust, transparency, and mutual respect. Our approach emphasizes relationship-building, proactive engagement, and student development. Through educational programming, outreach initiatives, and thoughtful behavioral interventions, we strive to create a campus environment where every individual feels safe, supported, and valued.

As a proud Lewis University alum and the Chief of Police, I am personally invested in this community. Lewis helped shape who I am, and serving this campus is both a professional responsibility and a personal commitment. I believe strongly in leading with integrity, treating every person with dignity and kindness, and ensuring our department is approachable, accountable, and here to help.

My expectation is that our officers serve with professionalism, empathy, and respect for all members of our campus community. Whether you have a question, concern, suggestion, or simply want to introduce yourself, I encourage students, faculty, staff, and families to stop by.

Our door is always open, and you'll often be greeted not just by our team but by our Comfort K9 Jet, who is always ready to offer a calm presence, a friendly tail wag, and support when it's needed most. Whether you stop by with a question, a concern, or just to say hello, you are always welcome here. We are here to keep you safe, to listen, and to ensure Lewis University remains a place where everyone feels supported, respected, and at home.

Marjorie Lill (Class of 2016, 2019)
Chief of Police

The Lewis University Police Department

The Lewis University Police Department is staffed by both sworn, certified police officers and civilian campus safety officers. The Lewis University Police Department is commissioned under the authority of the Illinois Private College Campus Police Act (110 ILCS 1020), which gives authority to a private university's Board of Trustees to pass a resolution commissioning a police department. Lewis University police officers are armed and possess law enforcement authority, including powers of arrest. Typically, at least one sworn police officer is on duty at all times. Police officers are supported by civilian campus safety officers. This team of public safety professionals provides a 24-hour presence on campus.

The Lewis University Police Department (LUPD) has the authority to enforce Illinois State statutes and Village of Romeoville ordinances in addition to University policies as outlined in the Lewis University Student Handbook. University police also have the authority to issue State, Village, and University traffic and parking citations, which are either processed through the Will County Circuit Court or paid directly through the University's electronic citation system. As the University is private property, officers may ask persons for identification at any time to determine whether they have a lawful purpose to be on the campus.

Criminal incidents may be reported to and investigated by LUPD or in collaboration with local law enforcement. LUPD maintains a law enforcement inter-agency agreement with the Village of Romeoville, which establishes a formal partnership between the Romeoville Police Department and the Lewis University Police Department to provide mutual assistance as needed. LUPD also has agreements with the Illinois State Police to provide resources. All crime victims and witnesses are strongly encouraged to immediately report crime to LUPD to be connected with support resources and initiate the investigation and resolution process. If a crime occurs at a campus site other than the main campus in Romeoville, the local police department where the campus is located should be notified. Prompt reporting will assure timely warning notices on campus and timely disclosure of crime statistics.

Jurisdiction

The Lewis University Police Department has law enforcement jurisdiction on university property and areas contiguous to campus. For the main campus site in Romeoville, the Romeoville Police Department and Will County Sheriff's Police have primary jurisdiction in areas off campus, but LUPD officers may respond to University-related incidents that occur in close proximity to campus. If the local municipal police are contacted about criminal activity occurring off campus involving Lewis students, local police may notify LUPD. However, there is no formal policy requiring such notification. Students in these cases may be subject to arrest by the local jurisdiction in addition to being referred to the University's student conduct process. When a Lewis University student is involved in an off-campus offense, LUPD officers may assist with the investigation in cooperation with local, state, or federal law enforcement. The Romeoville Police Department may jointly investigate serious incidents on the Romeoville campus with LUPD. As appropriate, LUPD may assist the Romeoville Police as requested by the Romeoville Police Department.

Mutual Aid

The Lewis University Police Department is party to certain mutual aid agreements. These consist of a Law Enforcement Agency Agreement with the Romeoville Police Department, the Illinois Law Enforcement Alarm System (ILEAS) Mutual Aid Agreement, and a LEADS (Law Enforcement Agencies Data System) Message Service Agreement with the Illinois State Police. The Law Enforcement Agency Agreement with the Romeoville Police Department primarily deals with jurisdictional boundaries and procedures related to mutual aid and collaboration. The University Police Department's membership in ILEAS provides for reciprocal service to protect the communities of Illinois in the event of a critical incident. The LEADS Message Service Agreement with the Illinois State Police permits the Illinois State Police to provide LEADS (Law Enforcement Agencies Data System) messaging service and record entry and removal on behalf of Lewis University Police.

DATA COLLECTION AND REPORTING

Data Collection / Publication

As required by the Jeanne Clery Campus Safety Act, crime, arrest, and student conduct referral data are requested from various sources, including local law enforcement agencies with jurisdiction over Lewis University campus sites. As data is available from these sources, it is recorded in this report as well as uploaded to the U.S. Department of Education website (https://ope.ed.gov/campussafety/#/). Students and employees are annually notified via a campus-wide email of the availability of the report, which is posted at www.lewisu.edu/police. Paper copies of the report may be requested by calling LUPD at (815) 836-5222 or emailing lewispolice@lewisu.edu.

Crime and Emergency Reporting and Response

The Lewis University Police Department is the central reporting agency for all crimes occurring on campus. Investigations will be conducted by LUPD in cooperation with other University officials and, as necessary, other local agencies.

The LUPD Communications Center is staffed 24/7 and can be reached by calling (815) 836-5911 (extension 5911). Community members may also text this number for emergency assistance if calling is not possible or if texting feels safer.

For non-emergency assistance, please call extension 5222 or (815) 836-5222. Our dispatchers can immediately coordinate with Lewis University Police officers, Residence Life staff, and/or local police, fire, or emergency medical services as needed.
Please note that dialing 911 from a campus phone or a personal cell phone while on campus will connect you to a local public safety answering point but will not directly connect you to the Lewis University Police Department.

The Lewis University Police Department is housed in West Hall (620 Sims Dr.) and is open to the public 24/7.

When serious crimes against persons are reported to the LUPD, the following support services may be involved:

- Dean of Students - 815-836-5275
- Director of Residence Life and Student Conduct – 815-836-5581
- Director of Student Wellness – 815-836- 5455
- University Ministry - 815-836-5617

Local outside agencies may be involved depending on the nature of the crime, including:

- Romeoville Police Department - (815) 886-7219
- Romeoville Fire Department - (815) 886-7227
- Lockport Township Fire Protection District - (815) 838-3287
- Will County Sheriff's Department - (815) 727-8570
- Illinois State Police (District 5) - (815) 726-6291
- Will County States Attorney's Office (815) 727-8453
- Guardian Angel Community Services (domestic violence) (815) 729-0930
- Illinois Department of Children and Family Services (800) 252-2873

In response to crime reports, LUPD personnel are dispatched to contact the complainant and initiate an investigation which may include filing a police report. LUPD can assist community members in notifying the appropriate local law enforcement agency when the reported crime occurred outside of LUPD jurisdiction. In response to emergency calls for service, University Police will be dispatched to the scene and may summon additional outside resources as needed.

University Police incident reports involving alleged violations of student conduct policies are forwarded to the Director of Student Conduct for review. Regardless of action taken by Student Conduct, a criminal investigation may proceed independently. If assistance is required from other agencies with jurisdictional authority, LUPD will contact the appropriate agency.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT, STALKING, DATING AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Education and Prevention Programs in Compliance with Clery Act

The University has developed an educational campaign consisting of presentations that include distribution of educational materials to new students; participating in and presenting information and materials during new employee orientation; and educational activities, programming and training on an ongoing basis to all employees and students.

The Office of Student Life is the primary provider of gender-based violence education and prevention on campus. Examples of programs include:

- Annual training to Peer Ministers, Resident Assistants, and New Flyer Guides regarding victim support and reporting.
- Annual "bystander intervention" training provided to each inter-collegiate athletic team, and to all incoming first-year students during their Cornerstone Seminar
- Presentation to incoming undergraduate students during Orientation & Welcome Week.
- Required on-line training module for new students.

Lewis University does not tolerate sexual misconduct of any type. Our Catholic, Lasallian tradition sees each and every human as created in the image of God, full of dignity and worth. Members of the University community, guests, and visitors have the right to be free from sexual violence, harassment, discrimination, and other forms of prohibited sex-based misconduct. All members of the community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that respects the rights of others to control their sexual behavior and bodily integrity. All members of the community have the right to decline to engage in any sexual activity without fear of retaliation or adverse actions from the person seeking to engage in that activity. The University Sexual Misconduct Policy has been developed to reaffirm this expectation and to provide recourse for those individuals whose rights have been violated. The University applies this policy regardless of the sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression of the individuals involved. The University takes seriously any incidents of sexual misconduct that come to its attention, whether by formal complaint or other means. Resolution by the University is intended to bring an end to harassing or discriminatory conduct, prevent its recurrence, support affected individuals, and remedy its effects on the victim and the community. The University explicitly prohibits the crimes of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking, as defined by federal and Illinois state law. These acts are antithetical to our values and community standards and will not be tolerated under any circumstances.

Some violations of this policy may also violate the criminal laws of the State of Illinois. Individuals who experience conduct that may violate both this policy and criminal law may choose to report the matter to law enforcement authorities, the University, both, or neither. The University will support an individual's decision regarding how they wish to proceed.

In applying this policy, the sex, gender identity, gender expression, and sexual orientation of the parties involved is irrelevant to whether a violation has occurred. Voluntary use of alcohol or other judgment-impairing substances by a person whose conduct otherwise violates this policy will rarely, if ever, excuse the behavior.

Sexual misconduct prohibited by this policy includes but is not limited to sexual harassment, non-consensual sexual intercourse, non-consensual sexual contact, sexual exploitation, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking and possession, distribution or administration of “date rape” drugs.

Sexual Harassment:

For purposes of this policy sexual harassment means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following criteria: 1) An employee of the University conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit or service on an individual’s participation in unwelcome sexual conduct; 2) Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the University’s education program or activities; or 3) Sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, as those terms are defined by applicable federal and Illinois law. a. Sexual harassment is not always sexually explicit and may include differential treatment or conduct based on sex that has the purpose or effect of creating a hostile environment. Sexual harassment may also include conduct directed at an individual because they declined or refused sexual advances or participation in sexual activity.

Sexual Assault Includes:

i. Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse: Any sexual intercourse (anal, oral, or vaginal), However, slight, whether with an object or body part, by any person upon any person, without effective consent. The sex, gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation of the individuals involved is irrelevant to whether a violation of this policy has occurred. ii. Non-Consensual Sexual Contact: Any intentional sexual touching, however slight, with any object or body part, by any person upon any person, without effective consent. The sex, gender identity, gender expression, or sexual orientation of the individuals involved 81 is irrelevant to whether a violation of this policy has occurred.

Dating and Domestic Violence:

Dating violence is violence, including sexual or physical abuse, or threat of such abuse, committed by a person who is currently, or has been previously, involved in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the alleged victim.

Domestic violence is violence, including sexual or physical abuse, or the threat of such abuse, committed by a person who is currently, or has previously been, the alleged victim's spouse, cohabitant, or another person protected under family or domestic violence laws (for example, a person who shares a child with the alleged victim).

Stalking includes a pattern of conduct, such as pursuing, following, monitoring, harassing, or engaging in repetitive communications, that is intended to, or has the effect of, causing another community member to reasonably fear death or serious bodily injury to themselves, a family member, or a pet/service animal, or that would otherwise be reasonably expected to cause substantial emotional distress. When a grievance involves conduct which may be sexual harassment as defined above and conduct which would violate other applicable codes of conduct, rules or policies, even if it did not meet the definition of sexual harassment, the grievance will be processed under the procedure provided in this policy unless and until the allegations of sexual harassment are withdrawn or dismissed. If such a withdrawal or dismissal occurs prior to a hearing on the sexual harassment grievance, then the matter will be processed under the provision of the conduct code, rule, or policy otherwise applicable.

Sexual Exploitation occurs when a student takes abusive sexual advantage of another for their own advantage or benefit, or that of third persons, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of the other sexual misconduct offenses. Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to:

- Invasion of sexual privacy
- Prostituting another student
- Non-consensual video or audiotaping of sexual activity
- Going beyond the boundaries of consent (ex. permitting or participating in voyeurism or secretly watching others who are engaged in consensual behavior)
- Knowingly transmitting a sexually transmitted disease to another student
- Exposing one's genitals in non-consensual circumstances or inducing another to expose their genitals
- Sexually based stalking and/or bullying may also be forms of sexual exploitation
- Knowingly sharing, posting, or distributing intimate images, recordings, or other sexually explicit material of another person without that person's consent.

Other Gender-Based Misconduct

- Threatening or causing physical harm, extreme verbal abuse, or other conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person;
- Discrimination, defined as actions that deprive members of the University community of educational or employment access, benefits, or opportunities based on sex, gender identity, gender expression, or other protected characteristics as provided by applicable law.
- Intimidation, defined as implied threats or acts that cause an unreasonable fear of harm in another;
- Bullying, defined as repeated and/or severe aggressive behavior likely to intimidate or intentionally hurt, control, or diminish another person, physically or mentally.

Predatory Drugs:
Possession, use and/or distribution or non-consensual administration to another of any so-called rape or date rape substances, including Rohypnol, Ketamine, GHB, Brundage, etc., is prohibited and a violation of this policy. Violations of Other Conduct Policies that Involve Sexual Misconduct: Conduct that violates this Sexual Misconduct Policy may also constitute a violation of other University policies, procedures, or standards of conduct. When appropriate, the University may address all alleged policy violations arising from the same incident through one or more applicable University processes.

Key Terms

Effective Consent
To be effective, consent must be clear, knowing and voluntary. Consent should normally be affirmatively expressed rather than inferred from silence, acquiescence or lack of objection by the recipient of sexual touching, intercourse or other conduct.

Effective consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create mutually understandable clear permission regarding willingness to engage in (and the conditions of) sexual activity.

Consent to any one form of sexual activity does not by itself imply consent to any other forms of sexual activity. Previous relationships or consent given on prior occasions does not imply consent to sexual acts with other persons or at other times.

A person's manner of dress does not constitute consent.

Consent from a person who is not of legal age is not effective consent.

Consent from a person who is known to be or should be recognized as incapacitated, whether by drugs, alcohol, disability, or other factor, is not effective consent.

Effective consent cannot be given by someone who is asleep, unconscious or only semi-conscious.

Consent, even if freely given, can be withdrawn at any time by words or acts that convey that consent no longer exists. Continuation of sexual touching or intercourse after consent is withdrawn is a violation of this policy.

Consent obtained by force or coercion is not effective consent.

Force
Force is the use or threat of physical violence, restraint, and/or imposing on someone physically to gain sexual access to that person or another. Such as using superior size or strength to limit another's ability to remove him/herself from a sexual situation or to believe that leaving would be unsafe.

Coercion
Coercion is unreasonable pressure for sexual activity. When someone makes it clear to you that they do not want sex, that they want to stop, or that they do not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction, continued pressure beyond that point can be coercive, particularly if the pressure suggests negative consequences or appeals to the social or other fears of the person refusing consent.

Incapacitation
Incapacitation or incapacity means that a person is in a state where he/she cannot make rational and reasonable decisions or to understand the circumstances of the sexual activity sufficiently to provide effective consent. Incapacity can be the result of drug or alcohol use, lack of consciousness/sleep, mental disability or physical restraint.

Sexual Touching
Sexual touching means intentional contact with the breasts, buttock, groin, or genitals, or touching another with any of these body parts, or making another touch you or themselves with or on any of these body parts; or any intentional bodily contact in a sexual manner, though not involving contact with/of/by breasts, buttocks, groin, genitals, mouth or other orifice.

Sexual Intercourse
Sexual Intercourse means vaginal penetration by a penis, object, tongue, or finger, anal penetration by a penis, object, tongue, or finger, and oral copulation (mouth to genital contact or genital to mouth contact).

When the University has reason to believe that a violation of the sexual misconduct policy has occurred, the University will take immediate and appropriate action through the Conduct Process. The University's Conduct Process is not dependent on the outcome of external criminal or civil proceedings and is usually not stayed by them. The University will take action against student offenses that occur on university property or at university-sponsored events. The University will also take action for alleged off-campus violations between students when such conduct detrimentally affects the university community.

Special consideration for matters involving Sexual Assault
If you believe you have been the victim of a sexual assault, nonconsensual intercourse or touching, or any violation of this policy involving physical violence or the threat thereof, there are additional factors to consider. First, get to a safe place, and report the matter to Lewis University Police or municipal police if the event occurs off campus. Your safety is paramount. Reporting sexual assault promptly will help University Police conduct an immediate and complete investigation in a timely manner and preserve evidence at the scene of the alleged offense, for the integrity of the investigation. No clothing, beverages, weapons, etc. should be touched until the Police officials are on scene. Immediately after an assault, the victim should avoid bathing, washing, or going to the bathroom, if possible, until you have talked with law enforcement personnel about evidence gathering. Ultimately, it will be your decision whether you wish to proceed with a criminal complaint, a complaint within the University Conduct Process, both or neither. However, your ability to make the decision that is right for you will be enhanced if the evidence is preserved and you promptly get the assistance you need, either from university or off-campus resources.

Victims may have a medical forensic examination completed at no cost in accordance with the Sexual Assault Survivors Emergency Treatment Act. The following are hospitals in close proximity to Lewis University:

Presence St. Joseph Medical Center, 333 N. Madison St., Joliet, IL 60435 (815) 725-7133
Silver Cross Hospital, 1900 Silver Cross Blvd, New Lenox, IL 60541 (815) 300-1100
Adventist Bolingbrook Hospital, 500 Remington Boulevard, Bolingbrook, IL 60440 (630) 312-5000

Understanding Privacy and Confidentiality
A common concern when reporting sexual misconduct is the sensitive nature of the matter and what, if any, information will be shared with other people. It is important to know the level of privacy that students can expect from different on-campus and off- campus resources. Essentially, there are four levels of privacy that can pertain to internal communications made to the University, depending on who you talk to and the circumstances of the conversation: Privileged; Confidential; Need to Know; and Anonymous.

Privileged Communication
Privileged Communications are those you would make to a doctor, therapist, or counselor for purposes of seeking therapeutic treatment, to a clergy member for purposes of confession, or to an attorney from whom you are seeking legal advice.

These conversations are highly privileged by law and normally cannot be revealed without your consent. In the case of medical providers, information may be revealed without your consent only when there is a high risk of harm to you or others and only as needed to avoid the harm, or if there is abuse of a minor child involved.

Confidential Communication
Confidential communications are those you might make to staff members working under the guidance of a mental health care professional in the Student Wellness Center. Disclosure of a personally identifiable aspect of a communication with a Confidential Resource can usually only be shared with others if you give your affirmative permission. As a result, when you report or discuss an instance of sexual misconduct with a Confidential Resource, that person does not report the matter to the Title IX Coordinator and none of the steps described in the process section of this policy will occur, absent a report to the Title IX Coordinator. A Confidential Resource is there to provide assistance and support that may include referrals to support agencies, help in understanding the internal and external resources and measures available to you, and help you understand and navigate the processes that may apply to your situation.

Confidential resources can be required to divulge information in the same circumstances as health care providers, and in addition may have to disclose personally identifiable information in response to a subpoena or other legal order from a court. It is important to note that confidential resources may have a duty to report information you disclose, but without identifying you personally, for purposes of fulfilling the University's commitment to honest reporting of crime statistics and proactively seeking ways to prevent sexual misconduct from occurring. In those instances, only limited information that is not identifiable to you will be released without your consent.

Anonymous Communications
Additionally, reports may be submitted electronically and anonymously online at www.lewisu.edu/lucares. An anonymous report can be helpful in the University's efforts to discern patterns and formulate preventative measures. However, depending on the circumstances and kind of information disclosed anonymously, it may not be possible to provide services to an undisclosed victim or conduct a meaningful investigation unless the person making the anonymous report comes forward.

Reports to Police Departments
Reports to the municipal police departments are outside the control and policies of the University. Most police departments have officers who are trained to handle reports of sexual crimes in a sensitive manner. However, their policies and obligations regarding further reporting of information to prosecutors or others in the criminal justice system may require disclosure of personally identifiable information. This is something you can discuss with an officer at the relevant police department if you chose to report a matter there.

PROCEDURE FOR REPORTING AND RESPONDING TO INSTANCES OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT
A community member may report conduct which they believe to violate this policy to a University official with authority to institute corrective measures on behalf of the University. A report may be made by any community member, whether they are the target of the harassing behavior or not. The University officials with authority to institute corrective measures are: the Title IX Coordinator and all deputy Title IX coordinators. Reports of sexual harassment, particularly relating to sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, and stalking may also be made to the LUPD. Other employees of the University, with the exception of confidential resources, are expected to forward any reports of sexual harassment they receive to the Title IX Coordinator. As discussed below a report will not necessarily trigger an investigation in the absence of a formal complaint by the person who is the target of the harassment; however, under some circumstances the LUPD may have an obligation under Illinois law to investigate and take action even in the absence of a formal complaint by the alleged target of the conduct (for example if there are allegations of domestic violence). To report conduct believed to violate this policy, the person making the report may contact any of the above-listed University officials in writing, by email, in person, or by telephone. Reports may be filed anonymously, although doing so may affect the University's ability to fully respond to the situation.

Upon receipt of a report of sexual harassment, the Title IX Coordinator shall be responsible to contact, directly or through a designee, the person reported to have been harassed to discuss: the need for supportive measures; determine the scope of any supportive measures; make clear that supportive measures are available whether or not the individual files a formal complaint of harassment and to explain the process for filing a formal complaint and the resolution process that will follow from a formal complaint.

The individual affected by the harassment has a choice as to whether to file a formal complaint of sexual harassment under this procedure. The affected individual may also file a complaint with law enforcement authorities if they so desire. The affected individual may file complaints under this process, with a law enforcement authority, with both or with neither based on what they believe is best for them in the given situation. The level of participation and information shared is determined by the alleged victim. Requests for anonymity and privacy, as well as the specificity of information provided, may limit the University's ability to fully respond to the incident. Alleged victims may also request specific action or inaction regarding how the complaint is resolved. In most cases, the University will attempt to honor these wishes. However, there may be times when the University will pursue an investigation and resolution independently in order to ensure the safety of the community and maintain a non-discriminatory environment. In those cases, the alleged victim will be notified and their privacy will be protected to the extent possible.

The availability of supportive measures that do not involve unreasonable burdens on a potential respondent or other community members shall not be affected by whether the harassed individual chooses to file a complaint under this policy or with law enforcement authorities.

FILING A FORMAL COMPLAINT OF HARASSMENT

A formal complaint of harassment under this policy may be filed only by the person against whom the sexually harassing conduct was directed (the "complainant") or in some cases by the Title IX coordinator. A formal complaint is required before the University can move forward with an investigation of the conduct to determine if the person engaging in the conduct has violated this policy and, if so, what the appropriate sanctions should be.

A formal complaint must be in writing, either in hard copy or electronic form, and be signed either physically or electronically by the complainant or otherwise indicate that it is filed by the complainant. The formal complaint must describe the conduct believed to violate this policy in sufficient detail (including the identity of the persons who engaged in the conduct if known) to permit a reasonable investigation and request an investigation. The formal complaint must be sent to the Title IX Coordinator by email, physical mail, or personal delivery.

Once a formal complaint is filed, the Title IX Coordinator shall be responsible for ensuring that the procedures for investigation and resolution of the formal complaint are followed.

FORMAL COMPLAINT RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

The resolution of formal complaints is a multi-step process. It consists of a preliminary review of the formal complaint, an investigation of any formal complaint which is not dismissed upon the preliminary review, a live hearing to determine responsibility of any person(s) alleged to have violated the policy a ("respondent") decision as to appropriate sanctions and or remedies when a violation is found to have occurred and the potential for appeal for parties who believe the initial outcome is not sufficient. Each of these steps is described in more detail below. Throughout the process complainants and respondents shall be treated equally in terms of access to advisors, supportive measures, opportunities to present information relevant to the formal complaint, notices and appeals.

Disciplinary sanctions for sexual harassment as defined above may not be imposed upon a respondent unless the respondent admits responsibility for committing sexual harassment or is determined to have done so after an investigation and hearing as provided for below.

PRELIMINARY REVIEW/EMERGENCY REMOVAL/INFORMAL RESOLUTION

a) Receipt of formal complaint.
Upon receipt of a formal complaint, the Title IX Coordinator or their designate will conduct an initial review of the formal complaint. The purpose of the review is to determine whether the formal complaint requires a formal investigation and hearing; whether interim measures are required to minimize an immediate or direct threat to physical safety to community members and whether to invite the parties ("parties" as used herein means the complainant(s) and respondent(s) to a particular formal complaint) to informally resolve the issues without a formal investigation and hearing.

b) Determining whether investigation is required.
To determine if an investigation is required, the Title IX Coordinator will analyze whether the conduct as described in the formal complaint, assuming the description to be fully accurate, would constitute sexual harassment as defined above; whether the complained-of conduct occurred in the context of the University's educational programs and activities; and whether the conduct occurred against a person in the United States. If the formal complaint satisfies these requirements, then it will proceed to a prompt investigation or informal resolution. If the conduct described in the formal complaint does not describe conduct that would constitute sexual harassment as defined above, or conduct which did not occur in the University's educational programs/activities or against a person in the United States, then the University will dismiss the formal complaint and close its proceedings under this policy. When a formal complaint is dismissed, but the conduct described might constitute a violation of other University codes of conduct, rules or policies, or faculty or employee duties, then the Title IX Coordinator will refer the complaint to the appropriate process for resolution of those issues depending on whether the respondent is a student, faculty member or staff employee.

c) Removal from Campus or Restriction of Respondent Pending Final Resolution.
The Title IX Coordinator, acting in concert with appropriate personnel, shall determine whether there is an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of any students or other individuals arising from the conduct or circumstances of the complaint which would justify immediate removal or exclusion of the respondent from campus, portions thereof, or certain activities. This assessment may occur as part of the preliminary review or at later points in the process as circumstances warrant. If such a removal or limitation is imposed, then the respondent shall be notified of the process for appealing the removal/restriction. That process is described below in the section on appeals. Removal or restriction will only be imposed when there is an immediate threat to physical safety.

d) Informal Resolution
In cases in which the Title IX Coordinator determines that a mediated resolution between the parties is both feasible and could adequately ensure all parties' equal access to the University's educational programs/activities, the Title IX Coordinator may invite the parties to participate in a mediated informal resolution process as an alternative to the investigation and hearing. Informal mediation shall occur only if both parties agree to the process in writing after being informed of the allegations of the formal complaint. If a resolution is reached through the informal process, it will be documented. Each party will be expected to abide by any agreed provisions, and failure to do so may in appropriate circumstances be considered a violation of the University's code of conduct/policies or rules. At any time prior to reaching a resolution, either party may unilaterally withdraw from informal resolution and require that the investigation and hearing process proceed.

INVESTIGATION

Investigations will be conducted by a University official with appropriate training in conducting sexual harassment investigations and University policies relating thereto. Investigators may include: the Title IX Coordinator, Deputy Title IX Coordinators, student conduct officers, designated faculty member, and designated human resources personnel, who may be assisted by LUPD personnel. The purpose of the investigation is to develop all of the information relevant to a decision as to whether sexual harassment as defined above occurred, including any information that has a tendency to make it more or less likely that sexual harassment in fact occurred.

Upon commencement of the investigation, the University will give written notice of the investigation to the Complainant and any individual identified as a respondent. The notice will provide the identity of the parties involved, a description of the conduct alleged to constitute sexual harassment as defined above, and the date, time, and location at/on which the conduct occurred to the extent known. To the extent the investigation reveals additional possible instances of sexual harassment, an updated notice shall be sent to the parties.

During the investigation, Complainant and Respondent(s):
-may each have an advisor of their respective choosing, who is not required to be a member of the University community and who may be an attorney. Advisors will be required to sign an agreement regarding confidentiality and behavior (for more information see separate section on advisors); are expected to be honest and forthright in response to any questions asked during the course of the investigation;
-may present evidence relevant to the determination that they have gathered, including either statements from witnesses or the identification of witnesses believed to have relevant knowledge;
-will be given written advance notice of the time, place and location of any hearing, interview or other meeting to which they are invited or expected to attend;
- will be provided equal access to inspect and review the evidence gathered in the investigation with an opportunity of no less than 10 calendar days to comment thereon prior to the close of the investigation;
-will be provided with a copy of the investigation report at least 10 days prior to any hearing on the formal complaint, so that they may review and file a written response if they so choose;
- are not required to waive any information that is privileged against disclosure by law.

Prior to the convening of the hearing on the formal complaint, the University may dismiss the formal complaint and cease the investigation if: i) each complainant to the formal complaint provides written notice of their desire to withdraw the formal complaint to the Title IX Coordinator; ii) the respondent(a) has/have ended their affiliation with the University and further proceedings are deemed unwarranted; iii) specific circumstances prevent the gathering of sufficient evidence to reach a reliable determination.

Upon dismissal for any of these reasons, notice of the dismissal shall be provided to all parties.
Any information disclosed to a complainant or respondent, or their respective advisor, is to be treated as confidential and used exclusively for the purpose of participating in the investigation, hearing, and/or appeal regarding the formal complaint. Inappropriate disclosure or misuse of the information disclosed, particularly if used in an attempt to embarrass, intimidate, or retaliate against a party or witness, is a serious violation of the University's policies which will lead to appropriate sanctions against the offending party.

HEARINGS

A respondent is entitled to a live hearing to determine whether their conduct constitutes sexual harassment as defined herein. Throughout the hearing and investigation process, a respondent is presumed not to have committed sexual harassment unless and until a violation is demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence to the satisfaction of the relevant decision maker. The purpose of the hearing under this policy is to determine whether sexual harassment as defined above occurred and whether the respondent committed the acts constituting the sexual harassment.

The process for the hearing shall be as follows:
One or more decision makers shall be designated as Hearing Officer(s). A decision maker may not be the same person who served as the investigator of the formal complaint. If there is more than one decision maker designated than one of the decision makers shall be designated as the lead Hearing officer, or the decision- makers may elect to appoint a non-voting Lead Hearing Officer for the purpose facilitating the conduct of the hearing including, ruling on the relevance of questions and procedural matters.
All parties shall be given written notice of the date time and place of the hearing at least ten days prior thereto. Requests for postponement of continuance of the date must be in writing and addressed to the Lead Hearing officer. Such requests must be made as soon as the reasons for the postponement are known to the party requesting it and should be supported by a statement of such reasons. Any postponement or continuance is at the discretion of the Lead Hearing Officer.

The hearing shall normally take place with all parties and witnesses physically present, but at the discretion of the Lead Hearing Officer, parties or witnesses may be allowed to appear via technology enabling all participants to simultaneously see and hear each other. Either party may request that the hearing proceed with the parties in separate rooms with technology enabling the Hearing Officers, and parties to simultaneously see and hear the party or the witness answer questions.
The investigator, or their designee, will serve as the Presenting Officer to present evidence and witnesses to the Hearing Officers.

At least five days prior to the hearing, the parties either personally or through their advisors shall meet with the Presenting Officer to determine if the parties can agree as to any of the facts relevant to the determination of the matter and prepare an appropriate statement of those agreed facts. This process is to help determine the scope of what is relevant to the hearing. The meeting may take place in person, via teleconference or other technology. Any statement of facts agreed to by the parties shall be presented to the Hearing Officer(s) and maybe relied upon in reaching a decision without further presentation of evidence as to the specific fact. Agreement to a fact shall not prohibit a party from presenting further evidence to provide context or explanation of the fact agreed to.

Each party is entitled to have an advisor present at the hearing for purposes of advising the party regarding the proceedings and for the purpose of asking questions of the parties or witnesses presented at the hearing. Advisors may not testify as witnesses in the hearing and may not provide statements to the Hearing Officers in the form of evidentiary submissions, opening/closing statements or the like, and are not to speak for their advisee in response to questions from the Hearing Officers. An advisor may make objections to the relevance of questions posed by another participant, but such objections shall be stated succinctly and without explanation unless requested by the Lead Hearing Officer.

During the hearing, each party shall have an equal opportunity to present live witnesses or other evidence in addition to any witnesses or evidence presented by the Presenting Officer.

Witnesses, including each of the parties, may testify by adopting a prior statement given to the investigator, LUPD or other investigating entity, and affirming the accuracy of the prior statement as written by them or described in the investigator's report or other materials. No prior statements made outside the hearing will be considered by the decision makers unless the party or witness who gave the statement appears at the hearing and answers questions from the Hearing Officers, the parties' respective advisors and the Presenting Officer to the extent that those persons have questions of the witness.

Questioning of the parties or witnesses shall be conducted only by the Hearing Officer(s), the Presenting Officer, or the advisor to one of the parties. The parties themselves shall not question each other or witnesses directly. All questioning shall be limited to areas that are relevant to the issue to be decided by the Hearing Officer(s) and shall be conducted in a respectful and appropriate manner. In the event that a complainant or respondent (or their respective advisor) fails to appear at the hearing, the Hearing Officer(s) may appoint an advisor to ask questions of parties or witnesses at the hearing on behalf of the absent party.

Before a party or witness is required to answer a question, the Lead Hearing Officer will determine if an answer to the question will provide information relevant to the decision to be made, and explain any decision to exclude a question. Relevant information is any information that if believed would make it more or less likely that the sexual harassment alleged in the formal complaint in fact occurred and/or that a respondent(s) was the person who engaged in the harassing conduct. Generally, prior sexual history of the complainant is not relevant to the determination, unless the complainant and the respondent were involved in an on-going consensual relationship and evidence concerning the prior sexual history between them is relevant to a disputed issue of whether consent was given on a particular occasion, or to prove that someone other than the respondent committed the conduct in question.

An audio recording of the hearing shall be made and maintained together with other records pertaining to the hearing and investigation.

DETERMINATIONS AFTER HEARING

After the evidence has been presented, the Hearing Officer(s) shall promptly issue a written decision as to whether the respondent did or did not commit sexual harassment as defined above. In addition, the Hearing Officer(s) may decide any other questions of conduct, policy or rule violations that are related to the alleged harassment. The decision shall be in writing and simultaneously sent to each party. The decision shall include:

- A statement of the conduct alleged to have been sexual harassment
-A description of the procedural steps taken from the receipt of the formal complaint through the making of the determination
- A statement of the factual findings made by the Hearing Officer(s) that support the decision
- A statement of how the code of conduct and/or sexual harassment policy apply to the facts as found
- A statement of the rationale for the result as to each allegation.

If the Hearing Officer(s) are also the university officials with the authority to determine sanctions to be imposed on a respondent found to be responsible, then a statement of the sanctions is to be imposed. If authority to impose sanctions on the particular respondent rests in a different official or body, the Hearing Officer(s) may, but are not required to, make a recommendation of appropriate sanctions to the appropriate university official or body.

A statement of the applicable process for either party to file an appeal and the permissible grounds for an appeal.
The decision of the hearing officers will become final either upon the expiration of the time for appeal with no appeal being filed, or upon the determination of any appeal which is filed.

APPEALS

Appeals of determinations of responsibility
Either party to a hearing may appeal the decision of the Hearing Officer(s) as to responsibility for a violation or a decision by the Title IX coordinator to dismiss a formal complaint upon the following grounds:
- A procedural irregularity materially affected the outcome
- The party has new evidence which was not reasonably available at the time the determination or dismissal occurred, and the new information could affect the outcome of the matter; or
- The Title IX Coordinator, investigator(s) or Hearing Officers had a conflict of interest or a bias specific to the party or to a class to which the party belongs and that the bias affected the outcome of the proceedings.

In matters involving a student respondent for conduct that occurred in his role as a student, appeals shall be filed with the Vice President for Student Life no later than 3 working days after the determination is sent to the parties.

In matters involving a Respondent who is a faculty member, Appeal shall be in accordance with Article XVI of the University Faculty By-laws. In matters involving an employee respondent(s), the appeal shall be filed within 3 working days of the Hearing Officer's decision, and shall be filed with the Office of the Provost to be decided by the Provost or the Provost's designee.

Appeals of decisions to impose interim restrictions
Appeals from a decision to remove a student or faculty respondent from campus or otherwise restrict such a respondent's access to campus or the University's educational programs/activities pending a final determination shall be made to the Vice President for Student Life or the Provost in the case of a faculty member. The appeal shall be made promptly after notice to the respondent of the interim measure or promptly after a change in circumstances that the respondent believes warrants reconsideration of the interim measure. The appeal must be in writing and state the basis upon which the student or faculty member disputes the appropriateness of the interim measure taken. Decisions of the Vice President for Student Life or Provost, or designee, is final.

Appeals to a decision regarding a non-faculty employee shall be made to the Office of the Provost. The appeal shall be made promptly after notice to the respondent of the interim measure or promptly after a change in circumstances that the respondent believes warrants reconsideration of the interim measure. The appeal must be in writing and state the basis upon which the student or faculty member disputes the appropriateness of the interim measure taken. Decisions of the Provost or the Provost's designee, are final.

ADVISORS

Complainants and respondents to any formal complaint may have an advisor of their choosing present with them at any interview, meeting or hearing conducted under this process. The advisor may, but is not required to be a member of the University community, and may but is not required to by an attorney. If a party has not designated an advisor at the time of the hearing, the University will appoint an advisor of its choosing for purposes of the hearing. The duties of an advisor so appointed shall be limited to asking questions of the other party or witnesses on behalf of the party during the hearing.

Advisors are required to behave consistently with University policies, rules, regulations and codes of conduct applicable to them. Advisors from outside the University community will be required to sign an agreement to abide by the University's policies prohibiting harassment, discrimination, and disorderly or disruptive conduct while on campus. In addition, advisors who are not university officials subject to FERPA directly, shall be required to sign an agreement to maintain the confidentiality of any information or evidence shared with them pursuant to this policy, and to use any such information solely for the purpose of advising their Complainant or Respondent advisee as to the investigation and hearing, and no other purpose.

Advisors, whether community members or not, may be subject to sanctions imposed by the Hearing Officer for misconduct that occurs in the course of an investigation or hearing.

POTENTIAL BIAS AND RECUSAL

All university personnel acting as the Title IX Coordinator, an investigator, a Hearing Officer, or an Appellate Reviewer are expected to be free from conflicts of interest or bias. If any of the above-mentioned are aware of a conflict of interest or the existence of a bias that could affect the outcome of the investigation, hearing, or appeal, they must either recuse themselves or disclose the conflict/bias to the parties. Only if both parties agree to waive the disclosed conflict/potential bias shall the person so affected continue to fulfill their role in the investigation or hearing.

If a party to a formal complaint believes that any of the investigators or decision makers involved in the investigation or hearing of the formal complaint has a conflict of interest or a bias that could materially affect the outcome of the process, the party may request the person so affected to recuse themselves from the proceedings. If the person believed to have a conflict or bias declines to recuse themselves, then the party may file a written request to disqualify the person with the Title IX Coordinator to determine whether a conflict or bias exists. The request to recuse or disqualify must be supported by specific explanation and evidence supporting the belief that a conflict or bias exists. (If the request to disqualify pertains to the Title IX Coordinator, then the request shall be made to the Office of the Vice President for Student Life).

Interim Supportive Measures

At any time prior to the final resolution of a report, the University may implement, either at the request of the alleged victim or on its own initiative, interim measures that are designed to promote a healthy and safe environment while the resolution process is continuing. Examples of these measures include:

• Changes in academic, living, dining, transportation and working situations
• A campus No Contact Order
• Honoring on campus an order of protection issued by a civil or criminal court
• Accommodations to ameliorate the effect of the alleged harassment on the alleged victim's participation in the University's educational programs.
• Supportive measures which would unreasonably restrict another community member's participation in the University's educational programs (e.g. expulsion, exclusion from a program or campus) can normally be imposed only after a hearing and finding of responsibility or if a direct threat to physical safety exists.

Retaliation and Interference in the Reporting and Resolution Process

Lewis University strictly prohibits any retaliation against anyone who in good faith reports, assists in reporting, or participates in the investigation and/or resolution of an alleged violation of the sexual misconduct policy.

Retaliation includes, but is not limited to: intimidation, threats, harassment, or other adverse action. Lewis University also prohibits efforts to interfere in the process by intimidating, bribing, or otherwise attempting to unfairly influence persons to withdraw reports or complaints or to withhold or alter any information relevant to the resolution of any alleged violation of this policy. Reports of retaliation or interference will be addressed in the student conduct process and may result in sanctions up to and including disciplinary suspension or expulsion from the University.

Amnesty for Alleged Victims

Although the University does not condone violations of University policies, it considers reporting and proper resolution of sexual assaults to be of paramount importance. Therefore, in cases involving sexual misconduct, the University will extend limited amnesty to community members who report, participate in the investigation or resolution of complaints, or who provide assistance to victims of sexual misconduct. This amnesty applies to violations of other University policies (for example, underage drinking) in order to foster reporting and fair adjudication of sexual misconduct. This amnesty will not extend to egregious violations or those that threatened community health and safety.

Support Services

The following on-campus support services are available to assist community members affected by sexual misconduct or allegations thereof:

- Student Wellness Center, Lower Level of Mother Teresa Hall (815) 836-5455

Sanctions

Lewis University will act to promptly and equitably remedy sexual misconduct found to have occurred.

Students who are found in violation of this policy are subject to sanctions which will vary with the severity of the violation, the degree of culpability, the likelihood of future harm to the complaining party or other community members, and any other relevant factors. Sanctions imposed may include warnings, probation, suspension, or expulsion. A complete listing of possible sanctions is provided later in this handbook.

In acting to sanction and remedy misconduct, Lewis is guided by the need to bring an end to discriminatory conduct, act to reasonably prevent its future recurrence, and to remedy the effects of the discrimination upon the victim and the University community.

Registered Sex Offenders

In compliance with both federal and state law, Lewis University is required to issue a statement advising the campus community where information concerning registered sex offenders may be obtained and provide the name, address, birth date, place of employment, school attended, and offense to any individual on campus requesting information concerning sex offenders attending or employed by the university. Any employee, student, prospective employee, prospective student or interested college community member may request to see a specific file upon request. One must make an appointment with the Chief of Police or her designee, Monday-Friday, 9 a.m. - 4 p. m.

Additionally, the Illinois State Police maintains a list of all sex offenders required to register in the State of Illinois. This database is updated daily and can be found at: www.isp.state.il.us/sor.

Illinois:

In order to comply with federal and state registration requirements related to college enrollment, a sex offender must register within three days of attendance or employment at a college by reporting in person to the University Police Department. Students or employees who fail to register their status as sex offenders are in violation of the registration act and face arrest and expulsion from the University.

Albuquerque:

Sex offenders enrolling as students at the Albuquerque campuses must disclose, in accordance with New Mexico state law, to the Executive Director of the Albuquerque campuses their status as sex offenders. This disclosure shall be completed in-person at the Albuquerque campus site with documentation maintained by the Executive Director of the campus. Student sex offender documentation will be retained for verification of compliance. Students or employees who fail to register their status as sex offenders are in violation of the registration act and could face arrest and expulsion from the University

SAFETY AND CRIME PREVENTION INITIATIVES

Public Incident Log

The University Public Incident Log is available on the web at: www.lewisu.edu/police. The Public Incident Log is posted each month. For more recent incidents not yet posted, contact LUPD. The Public Incident Log contains all reported incidents which resulted in a police report being generated. The Public Incident Log typically includes the nature, date, time, general location, brief synopsis and disposition of each incident. The University will not disclose personally identifying information of victims in any public statement or report.

Crime Prevention and Safety

As a microcosm of society, Lewis University is not immune to the problems that occur in most communities. The potential for criminal activity to occur on campus or any regional site is a reality that must be taken seriously. It is only possible to maintain safety and security when everyone: students, employees, and visitors take an active part in the effort.

Situational awareness is the first step in self-protection. Simple, common sense, proactive measures are the most effective means of maintaining property security and personal safety. Students and employees who practice crime prevention can make the community a safer place to live, learn, and work. The common tenets of crime prevention are straightforward: remain alert and attentive to potential dangers; don't put yourself or your property at risk; and immediately report suspicious activity to the police.

A safe and secure campus is everyone's responsibility. Community members are encouraged to visit the LUPD website to access a variety of information on safety, security and crime prevention www.lewisu.edu/police. For copies of printed materials or to schedule a safety or crime prevention program, contact LUPD. Community education programming requests can be submitted electronically via the police department website. In addition to the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) content provided in this report, information about preventing and responding to sexual misconduct and gender-based violence is available through the LU Cares page at: www.lewisu.edu/lucares.

Campus Security Authorities

Campus Security Authorities (CSAs) are federally mandated campus crime reporters. The intent of including non-law enforcement personnel in the role of CSA is to acknowledge that some community members and students in particular may be hesitant about reporting crimes to the police, but may be more inclined to report incidents to other campus-affiliated individuals. To further encourage the timely reporting of incidents affecting the campus community, the Clery Act identifies four categories of CSAs:

- University Police;
- non-police security staff responsible for monitoring University property;
- people / offices designated under university policy as those to whom/which crimes should be reported;
- and "officials with significant responsibility for student and campus activities."

CSA Crime Reporting

CSAs are encouraged to report all crimes they become aware of to LUPD on a timely basis. Under the Clery Act, however, CSAs are only obligated to report Clery Act qualifying crimes which occurred on campus, in public areas bordering campus and in certain non-campus buildings owned or controlled by the University. CSAs should only report those crimes that have not been previously reported to University Police or another University CSA. A pastoral or professional counselor, who is functioning within that scope at the time a crime is reported, is not considered a CSA and not required to report crimes but is encouraged to review crime reporting options with reporting parties.

When a crime is reported to a CSA, the CSA should first ask the reporting party if they would like to report the incident directly to University Police. If so, the CSA should contact LUPD. If the reporting party does not want LUPD contacted, for Clery Act qualifying crimes, the CSA must complete and submit a Campus Security Authority Crime Report Form which is available at the www.lewisu.edu/police. The report form can be emailed to lewispolice@lewisu.edu, faxed, or mailed (Lewis University Police, One University Parkway, Romeoville, IL 60446). Note: If the reported crime or incident involves an emergency, the CSA should immediately contact police. For additional information on the Clery Act or CSA crime reporting responsibilities, visit http://clerycenter.org/

CSAs have an important role in complying with the Clery Act, which was enacted to help create a safer campus community. Timely reporting of crimes by CSAs allows the University to review whether or not a "Timely Warning" should be issued to the community. Additionally, CSA reports help maintain accurate crime data. With timely and accurate crime reporting, the University can maintain accurate records of incidents and determine if there is a pattern of crime with regard to a particular location, method, or offender and, as appropriate, alert the community to potential danger. Anonymous reports received by LUPD may be investigated under certain circumstances.

Theft

Theft is the most common crime on campus. Mitigating crime is accomplished by removing one of three necessary ingredients for a crime to occur: opportunity, desire, or ability. Since stopping a thief's desire to steal or taking away his physical ability to steal is virtually impossible, we must focus on removing opportunity. The techniques described below are designed to reduce the opportunity for theft and increase risk for a would-be thief.

- Lock your office, vehicle or residence hall room.
- Secure all valuables out of sight.
- Practice situational awareness - watch for and immediately report suspicious activity and behavior.
- Ask unescorted visitors in your office or residence hall to identify themselves and explain the purpose for their visit. This can be done in a friendly way by asking, "Hi, can I help you find someone?"
- Request identification from persons who wish to repair or remove property.
- Report criminal incidents on a timely basis to University Police.

Emergency Phones and Call Boxes

Community members should familiarize themselves with the campus emergency phones and call boxes. They are housed in bright yellow, black, or brown boxes or brown towers with a blue light overhead. Campus maps which indicate the locations of emergency phones are available online at: http://www.lewisu.edu/campuses/romeoville/maincampusmap.htm.

Campus Facilities and Building Security

Residence Halls

Resident students are responsible for making their visitors and guests aware of University policies. Residents may be held responsible for the conduct of their visitors and guests. Access to residence halls is limited to residents and their invited guests through designated entrances. All campus residence halls remain locked at all times. Dual-purpose buildings with both residential and office or classroom space are segmented and secured, with residential areas remaining locked. All residential facilities are connected to the University's electronic access control system. Resident students are issued key cards to access residential buildings.

Other Facilities

Many athletic and cultural events on campus are open to the public. The University bookstore, library, academic, administrative, and dining facilities are also open to the public during regular business hours. Academic buildings are usually open from 7:00 a.m. until 10:00 pm on weekdays and as needed on weekends.

Maintaining Secure Buildings and Infrastructure

Lewis University is committed to campus safety and security. Exterior lighting and landscape control is a critical part of that commitment. The Facilities Department maintains the University buildings and grounds, including lighting, sidewalks, roadways, and landscaping. The Facilities Department conducts routine checks of lighting on campus. University Police regularly patrol campus and report malfunctioning lighting and unsafe physical conditions to the Facilities Department for correction. Community members are encouraged to report any deficiency in lighting or other unsafe facility conditions to the Facilities Department at (815) 836-5404.

To report any safety or security hazard you may encounter, contact the Facilities Department at (815) 836-5404 or University Police at (815) 836-5222. Residence Life can also be contacted for non-emergency safety or security hazard concerns in the residence halls at (815) 836-5581. For safety or security hazard concerns in the residence halls after hours, contact your Resident Assistant or Residence Life Coordinator.

Video Surveillance and Recording

The Lewis University Police Department operates a public safety video surveillance system to complement its anti-crime strategy, to effectively allocate and deploy personnel, and to enhance public safety and security in public areas. Cameras may be placed in strategic locations on campus to detect and deter crime, to help safeguard against potential threats to the community, to help manage emergency response situations, and to assist University officials in providing services to the community.

The Lewis University Police Department has the operational authority to select, coordinate, operate, manage, and monitor the public safety video surveillance system. Only department-approved video surveillance equipment shall be utilized. The installation of "dummy" cameras is prohibited.

Only public areas where no reasonable expectation of privacy exists will be monitored. Images from each camera are recorded in a manner consistent with the underlying purpose of the particular camera. Cameras are not normally monitored in real time and only record video images and not sound.

Unauthorized recording, viewing, reproduction, dissemination or retention is prohibited.

Weapons and Concealed Carry

Possession and / or use of firearms, dangerous weapons or explosive devices, including, but not limited to paint ball guns, pellet guns, BB guns and other projectile firing devices is prohibited. Use or misuse of any item in such a way that it could cause bodily harm or property damage is prohibited.

In compliance with the Illinois Firearm Concealed Carry Act (PA098-0063), any building, classroom, laboratory, artistic venue, athletic venue, entertainment venue, officially recognized University-related organization property, whether owned or leased, and any real property, including sidewalks and common areas under control of the University are considered “prohibited areas” upon which a Concealed Carry License holder shall not knowingly carry a firearm. A Concealed Carry License holder shall be permitted to carry a concealed firearm on or about his or her person within a vehicle into a parking area and may store a firearm or ammunition concealed in a case within a locked vehicle or locked container out of plain view within the vehicle in the parking area. A Concealed Carry License holder may carry a concealed firearm in the immediate area surrounding his or her vehicle within a parking lot only for the limited purpose of storing or retrieving a firearm within the vehicle’s trunk, provided the license holder ensures the concealed firearm is unloaded prior to exiting the vehicle. The University does not provide firearms storage for Concealed Carry License holders. Further, a Concealed Carry License holder shall not carry a firearm while operating a University vehicle whether on or off University property.

In accordance with state statute and the Federal Law Enforcement Officer Safety Act, qualified current and retired law enforcement officers may possess firearms on University property.

LUPD Crime Prevention & Security Awareness Programs

LUPD provides various crime prevention and safety programs available to students and employees. For programming information, visit the LUPD website: www.lewisu.edu/police. Students and employees are also made aware of safety, security, and crime prevention publications and related web-based resources. Printed materials (including copies of this report) are available upon request. The following programs are presented regularly throughout the academic year:

New Flyer and Family Orientation: As part of student orientation, new students and their families receive information from LUPD regarding crime prevention, public safety resources, campus violence prevention, and other services.

A.L.I.C.E. (Alert, Lockdown, Inform, Counter, Evacuate): An interactive training program on active shooter survival tactics presented by a certified instructor. This program can be presented as a classroom only lecture or it can incorporate live-action scenarios.

De-Escalation, Confrontation and Conflict Management: This program provides participants with an understanding of the physiological effects of stress which can inhibit communication and intensify confrontations. Participants are taught methods to manage that stress and are trained in implementing various tools meant to improve communication and focus on problem-solving. A self-assessment is also completed to aid participants in understanding their own conflict management styles.

Relationship Violence: This presentation is intended to give a basic understanding of the dynamics of relationship violence while also providing an overview of dating and domestic violence on college campuses.

Drunk Driving: This presentation will cover the dangers of driving under the influence of alcohol and other drugs as well as the specific criminal repercussions of a drunk driving arrest.

Fire Safety: This presentation will help participants to understand the risks associated with fires on a college campus. The program will also cover what to do during a fire alarm and prevention tips.

Violence Prevention: A program which explores risk factors and observable behaviors that community members can be alert to which may be predictive of someone on that "pathway to violence." This program provides a window into the evolution of a violent actor and presents real strategies that community members can use to build situational awareness and become part of the overall community effort to prevent a violent attack on campus

R.A.D (Rape Aggression Defense): A program of realistic, self-defense tactics and techniques, the R.A.D. System is a comprehensive course for women or men that begins with awareness, prevention, risk reduction and avoidance, while progressing on to the basics of hands-on defense training. R.A.D., which is not a Martial Arts program. Is taught by certified LUPD R.A.D. instructors.

Positive Choices Program: A one-hour presentation made to student groups upon request which addresses, in an interactive format, social norms, harm reduction, by-stander intervention, and DUI utilizing a self-assessment tool through a guided discussion.

Open Forums: LUPD officers regularly appear at student organization meetings to present on various topics and field questions about public safety.

Guest Lectures: LUPD officers regularly appear as guest lecturers in various classes to present on topics such as campus violence prevention, conflict management, active threat survival, and police training and culture.

Tabling Events: LUPD officers participate in all campus visit day programs, student organization fairs, and other events where information tables are set up to answer questions and provide information to the community.

Passive Programming: LUPD maintains a robust presence on various social media platforms including Facebook, X, Instagram and YouTube where messaging to promote various aspects of public safety is delivered through posts, videos, pictures and links.

Comfort Canine: LUPD's comfort canine, Jet, a specially trained Golden Retriever, is available to attend special events or to respond to students experiencing a crisis. Jet works a regular patrol shift five days a week alongside his handler, an LUPD police officer.

SafeWalk: LUPD provides a safety escort service available 24/7 to students and employees walking anywhere on campus.

Alcohol and Other Drug Education and Programming

Team-based Brief Motivational Interviewing & Alcohol Education Program
This program provided by the Student Wellness Center delivers alcohol education, social norms awareness, expectancy information, and harm reduction information that empowers athletes to reflect upon and create their team culture. Anonymous text-to-poll technology is used to facilitate awareness and dialogue regarding team alcohol use and impact on success.

Peer Minister Training
During fall semester, the Student Wellness Center provides annual peer minister training that educates student peer ministers about student issues, response, intervention, and referral skills. Among topics discussed is alcohol and other drug use.

BASICS/CASICS
Brief Alcohol Screening and Intervention for College Students (BASICS) and Cannabis Screening and Interventions for College Students (CASICS) are two-session alcohol or marijuana assessments and education programs allowing Lewis students to explore their drinking/smoking behaviors and reflect on ways to reduce risky behaviors and harmful consequences of alcohol and marijuana misuse. Sessions are available for students to participate in voluntarily. BASICS or CASICS are also utilized as an educational tool for students who have violated the alcohol and other drug policy and are subsequently mandated by conduct action to complete the sessions and follow recommendations provided by the facilitator.

e-CHECKUP TO GO for Alcohol and Cannabis

Alcohol e-CHECKUP TO GO and Marijuana e-CHECKUP TO GO are free interactive surveys that provide personalized feedback about a person's alcohol or marijuana use patterns. The survey is integrated into the BASICS and CASICS sessions, providing students with immediate and comprehensive feedback regarding use patterns. Beginning with the freshman class entering Fall of 2014, e-CHECK UP TO GO for Alcohol was encouraged for incoming students to complete, providing LU with critical information regarding patterns of use to reference for program development.

Employee Assistance Program (EAP)

The EAP is a benefit Lewis University provides to all employees and their families. It is designed to help individuals who have issues that impair, or have the potential to impair, their health and well-being and/or their work performance. EAP counselors help with many types of issues, including relationships, emotional issues, substance abuse, work stress, job performance, and much more. Perspectives Online website at www.perspectivesltd.com provides convenient and confidential online access to a vast and continually refreshed library of articles, self-guided assessments, links, calculators, and information in the following areas: emotional well-being, family and caregiving, health and wellness, daily living, and working well.

Police Department Programming:

The Lewis University Police Department provides community education, programming, enforcement, and student intervention. LUPD officers receive ongoing specialized training in mental health issues, neurodivergence, crisis intervention, suicide prevention and intervention, and substance abuse. LUPD Programs related to alcohol and other drugs include:

Positive Choices Program: A one-hour presentation made to student organizations upon request which addresses, in an interactive format, social norms, harm reduction, bystander intervention, and DUI by way of a guided self-assessment tool.

Residence Hall Community Officers: Police Officers are assigned to specific residence halls as community officers. Police Officers collaborate with Resident Assistants and Residence Life Coordinators to develop programs, create problem-oriented policing interventions, and build relationships and rapport with resident students.

Special Event Details: Police officers regularly attend University events as additional staff presence and event support.

Educational Intervention Response: LUPD Officers are trained to prioritize intervention over enforcement. Intervention is focused on harm reduction and is meant to be developmental, not punitive. The majority of violations encountered by police officers are referred to student conduct rather than arrest or citation.

STUDENT CONDUCT

Students arrive on campus with varying backgrounds and experiences. During their years at Lewis, students develop lasting relationships as they face the academic and social challenges of life. Personal growth and development, a sense of personal responsibility, respect for the individual and the rights of others, and an appreciation for Catholic and Lasallian values are all essential for a student's successful advancement toward his or her educational goals at Lewis University.

As a faith-based university, Lewis is a community of many persons whose cooperation and mutual relationships contribute to the educational process. All members of a community share rights and duties, each according to his or her own role. Rights are balanced by responsibilities. The University has established certain conditions which it has determined are essential for the achievement of its educational mission. The University reserves the right to sanction inappropriate behavior on the part of any student whose conduct is detrimental to this mission. Conduct incompatible with the University community, which is therefore disruptive of our educational environment, shall be subject to conduct action and/or action taken by the local authorities. The University has established policies for behavior which ensure that a healthy environment for living and learning exists. Students are responsible for the policies outlined in the Student Handbook, as well as all behavioral standards set forth in other documents governing student life.

Irresponsible, disrespectful, unsafe, and destructive behavior has a ripple effect within the University community and, therefore, it is essential that each individual's rights and privileges are protected.

Violating University Behavioral Standards disrupts the University. Sanctions for violations of the codes are outlined in the Student Handbook and depend on both the type of behavior and the severity of the breach. All persons who are present during any violation of the behavioral code will be documented and are subject to disciplinary action. New policies may be defined by the Office of the Dean of Students as necessary.

Off-Campus Behavioral Standards

Individual Students:

must comply with all applicable local, state, or federal criminal laws, whether on- or off-campus. Violation of any such law may lead to sanctions imposed by the University, regardless of whether the conduct constitutes a violation of the University Community Standards and Student Code of Conduct. In determining whether to impose sanctions in response to a student's violation of local, state, or federal law, the University shall consider whether the student's conduct is in violation of the University's Community Standards or whether the student's continued presence on campus poses a serious threat to themselves, other people, or property. In any case in which the University learns of off-campus violations by a student, referral of that student may be made to the Conduct process and/or administrative action may be taken.

Student Organizations:

Student organizations, their members, and their guests participating in any events sponsored by the University or organizations within the University represent Lewis. The University recognizes the importance of all events. While organizations are encouraged to participate in and sponsor social, service, and educational events, they must also understand their responsibilities in representing the University.

Further information regarding off-campus events can be found in the Student Organization Manual. Advisors- or their designees- are encouraged to contact the Office of Student Engagement to ensure appropriate supervision for both on- and off-campus events for Registered Student Organizations. This determination is made by the Office of Student Engagement in consultation with the Office of Student Life. An Event Request Form must be submitted at least two weeks prior to any event, including events occurring off campus. No organization may sponsor an event in a bar or pub. Any consumption of alcohol at an organization event on or off campus is expressly prohibited without the written permission of the Vice President for Student Life or designee. Organizations and their advisors are responsible for the general welfare of the group, its individuals, and others with whom they have contact during the event. Financial obligations of the organization must be met in accordance with contracts and agreements made between the organization and those providing services. All contracts must be signed and given to the Office of Student Engagement or designate at least two weeks prior to the event. At such events as described in this policy, behavior of the organization, individuals, and guests is governed by the code of conduct in this handbook as well as the Student Organization Manual. Inappropriate behavior, even though occurring off campus, may fall within the jurisdiction of the University

EMERGENCY NOTIFICATIONS, RESPONSE, EVACUATION

Timely Warnings

Timely warnings will be disseminated by Lewis University utilizing method(s) likely to reach members of the affected campus community when the reported incident is a Clery Act crime that:

1. Is reported to a Campus Security Authority or University Police in a timely manner;
2. Occurs in a Clery Act-defined location; and
3. Is determined, in the judgment of the Lewis University Police Department (LUPD), Dean of Student Life, or designee, to represent a serious or continuing threat to campus community members.

Timely warnings will not include the names or other identifying information of victims.

The Clery Act does not require universities to issue timely warnings on Clery Act crimes occurring outside of the geographical areas as defined by the Clery Act, or on non-qualifying Clery Act crimes. However, designated University officials may, at their discretion, choose to provide timely warnings on crimes outside of Clery Act timely warning qualifying parameters. In short, the University will inform community members of any incident, emergency, or dangerous situation which represents a serious, immediate or continuing threat to the health or safety of campus community members.

Timely Warnings are typically distributed for the following crimes:

- Murder/Non-negligent Manslaughter
- Negligent Manslaughter
- Rape (criminal sexual assault)
- Fondling (criminal sexual abuse)
- Robbery
- Burglary (not including burglary to a motor vehicle)
- Aggravated Battery
- Motor Vehicle Theft
- Arson
- Hazing

Each criminal incident is considered individually. Factors in considering an incident for timely warning include: reviewing the facts surrounding a reported crime, the nature of the crime, the crime occurrence location, the serious or continuing threat to the campus community, and the possible risk of compromising law enforcement efforts.

LUPD may not issue a Timely Warning for Clery Act crimes if:

1. LUPD, or another law enforcement agency, apprehends the suspect(s) and the serious or continuing threat to members of the Lewis University community has been mitigated by the apprehension or

2. A report was not filed with LUPD, or LUPD was not notified of the crime in a manner that would allow LUPD to post a "timely" notice for the University community.

Emergency Notification

An emergency notification is an announcement to inform the campus community about a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on the campus.

An emergency notification expands upon the definition of "timely warning," as it includes both Clery Act crimes and other types of emergencies (examples: a fire, infectious disease outbreak, active shooter, terrorist attack, natural disaster, weather emergency). For additional information on community emergency notification, see the "Emergency Preparedness" section in this report.

Emergency Notification and Timely Warnings Review Process

The Chief of Police may, as time permits, consult with the Dean of Students or Provost (or designee) to determine whether a notification for a reported crime shall be issued to the affected campus community. All LUPD incident reports are reviewed to assess whether incidents reported to LUPD represent a serious or continuing threat to University community members.

The Chief of Police (or designee) may recommend the content of notifications in consultation with the Provost, Dean of Students or / and the Executive Director of Media Relations. However, in the event of a critical, rapidly developing incident, the police officer in charge has the authority to activate the campus emergency notification system. The Executive Director of Media Relations (or designee) is responsible for maintaining scripted messages within the system for immediate activation by police telecommunicators. Select University administrators also have the authority to initiate the emergency notification system. Lewis University utilizes a service called "RAVE" to send message(s) very quickly to the entire campus community via phone call, email, and text message. Additionally, social media platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, X and the University website may be utilized to disseminate information.

The University may provide follow-up information to the community as determined to be necessary / appropriate. Members of the larger community who are not affiliated with Lewis University, but need additional information, may visit the University website for updated emergency information.

If the emergency notification systems fail, the Campus Emergency Planning Team will initiate emergency actions and communicate life safety guidance in conjunction with activation of the campus emergency operations plan. Notifications will generally include a succinct statement describing the incident, the location and time it occurred, suspect's location (known or unknown), suspect's description, method of operation and / or possible connection to previous incidents, injuries sustained by the victim(s), if relevant, and personal safety information to aid members of the University community in protecting themselves from becoming victims of a similar crime and to promote overall safety.

Community Notification
Lewis has several methods of emergency communication. These systems include an emergency notification system (RAVE) that utilizes phone calls, text messaging and emails. Social media and the University website may also be used for communications. Other methods of disseminating information include but are not limited to: posting fliers in public places, faxes and notifying local media.

Emergency Communication Capabilities
The emergency notification system, "RAVE," is an automated service which makes phone calls, sends (SMS) text messages and transmits emails rapidly when activated to alert community members. Students and employees are automatically enrolled in the system using contact information provided in employment and enrollment applications. Because Lewis University may need to contact students and employees quickly in an emergency, it is important that contact information is up to date in the campus database. For instructions on how to enter or update emergency contact information, contact the Service Desk at (815) 836-5950 or visit:
http://www.lewisu.edu/welcome/offices/hr/emergency.htm

Guests to campus who wish to be enrolled in RAVE so they may receive emergency notifications can enroll by texting lewisu411 to 226787 from a mobile phone.

University Police Role
The University Police Department is integral in providing critical information in an accurate and timely manner that can be used by senior University administrators to assess the need to authorize and issue emergency communications to the University community. On receiving notification of an incident, LUPD leadership will alert University officials of the situation as appropriate. LUPD personnel have the authority and capability to activate emergency notification systems in critical incidents when consultation with University administrators is not possible.

Authorization to Direct System Activation
The following individuals or their designees are authorized to direct the activation of the emergency notification system: President, Provost, Chief of Police, or Executive Director of Media Relations. In critical incidents, when time constraints require prompt action, the Police Officer in charge of an incident may direct the emergency communications system to be activated.

If the emergency notification systems fail, the Campus Emergency Planning Team or Campus Incident Management Team will initiate emergency actions and communicate life safety guidance in conjunction with activation of the emergency operations plan.

Emergency Preparedness

Emergencies can occur at any time without warning. Being prepared to handle emergencies, disasters, accidents, and injuries is essential. Emergency preparedness is a shared community responsibility.

All members of the University community should become familiar with emergency preparedness procedures and plans by reviewing information posted on the University's Emergency Planning webpage:

www.lewisu.edu/emergencyplanning.

The more prepared community members are, the better they will be able to respond. Questions about emergency planning should be directed to University Police at extension 5222 or 815-836-5222.

Evacuation
Campus buildings have a notification system for emergency evacuation. In most buildings this is a fire alarm system. Whenever the alarm system sounds and/or voice command for evacuation is transmitted, all building occupants must evacuate the building or move to a safe location.

Severe Weather

- Remain calm.
- Seek shelter in a centrally located sturdy room on the lowest possible floor, away from windows and exterior doors.
- Do not go outside or into open areas such as gymnasiums or other rooms where there are large open spans.

- Do not open windows during a tornado in an attempt to equalize building pressure.
- Stay away from windows, exterior doors, skylights.

Chemical or Biological Agent

- Remain Calm.
- Listen for and follow instructions provided by public safety personnel.
- Return to your room and close all windows and doors unless instructed differently by Public Safety.
- Turn off air conditioning units if able to do so.
- Be prepared to evacuate the area if instructed by Public Safety.

Active Attacker, Active Threat

Run/Evacuate

- Get as far away as you can as fast as you can.
- Leave belongings behind and keep hands visible.
- Notify police of the situation when it is safe to do so.

Hide/Lockdown

- If you're unable to run, then hide / lockdown.
- Proceed to the nearest interior room that can be locked or secured.
- Close and lock all windows and doors and turn off all the lights. Barricade the door if possible.
- Spread out.
- Remain quiet and silence phones.

Fight/Counter

- Fighting is a last resort to be used only when your life is in imminent danger.
- Work as a team.
- Improvise weapons: chairs, fire extinguishers, coffee mugs
- Attempt to incapacitate the active attacker.

Emergency Response and Evacuation Testing
The RAVE system is tested regularly.

The University Police Department will conduct fire evacuation drills of all residence halls at least once each academic year. Emergency response and evacuation testing may be announced or unannounced. For each test, the University documents a description of the exercise including the date and time of the drill. Evacuation drill documentation is maintained by LUPD and is conducted in collaboration with the Romeoville Fire Department.

As a living document, the Lewis University Campus Emergency Operations Plan (CEOP) is tested via completion of exercises annually and revised each year to increase operational efficiency and maintain the highest level of preparedness, response and recovery capabilities. Federal and State legislation require colleges and universities to annually update and exercise emergency operations plans.

MISSING STUDENTS

Federal law (20 USC 1092 (j) Section 488 of the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008) requires that the University establish a policy on reporting a student missing from on-campus student housing, advising how students can designate a missing person contact person, and how the missing person contact information will be used.

If any person believes or receives notice that a Lewis University student is missing, he or she must immediately notify University Police at (815) 836-5911. University Police will generate a missing person report and initiate an investigation, and if the person is determined to be missing, will initiate notifications required by federal and state laws.

Students have the option to identify a missing person contact to be notified by Lewis University in the event the student is determined to be missing. If a student has identified such an individual, Lewis University will notify that individual no later than 24 hours after the student is determined to be missing. The Lewis University Police Department does not consider any report of a missing person to be routine and assumes that the missing person is in need of immediate assistance until an investigation reveals otherwise. The Lewis University Police Department gives missing person cases priority over property-related cases and does not require a specific amount of time to have passed before beginning a missing person investigation.

University Police will accept any report, including a telephone report, of a missing student. If University Police determine that a student for whom a missing person report has been filed has been missing for 24 hours, then, no later than 24 hours after the student has been determined to be missing, University Police will:

1. Notify the individual(s) identified by the student to be contacted in such circumstances.
2. Notify a parent or guardian if the student is less than 18 years old and not emancipated.

3. Notify appropriate law enforcement agencies in compliance with all statutory requirements.
4. Notify the Dean of Students, Director of Residence Life, or Provost.

The student-provided missing person contact information will be registered confidentially and will be accessible only to authorized campus officials and may not be disclosed, except to law enforcement personnel in furtherance of a missing person investigation. In the event of a missing student determination, University Police will investigate and follow procedural protocols outlined in the University Police Missing Persons Policy (Policy #415, Lewis University Police Department Policy Manual). The University is responsible for maintaining missing student contact notice documentation in accordance with record retention requirements outlined in the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (20 USC 1092(f)).

Regardless of whether the student has named a confidential missing student contact person under this Policy, University Police will notify any appropriate law enforcement agencies in compliance with all statutory requirements no later than 24 hours after the time the individual is determined missing. Lewis University may issue community notice(s), including photograph(s) of the student, to assist in locating a missing student.

ALCOHOL AND DRUGS

In compliance with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 (DFSCA) Lewis University has established regulations prohibiting the possession, use or distribution of any illicit drugs, and the misuse or illegal use of alcohol, on University property or as part of any University-sponsored activity. Special permission may be granted by the Dean of Students to permit alcohol at specific University events or facilities. Students are also subject to all applicable local, state and federal laws for any offenses involving drugs or alcohol on or off University property or at University-sponsored activities.

Student Support
Throughout a student's experience as a Lewis student, they will create new relationships, have a wide variety of new opportunities, and be faced with exciting choices. The use of alcohol and other drugs is often one of these choices and is sometimes a difficult one. The Student Wellness Center provides numerous resources to assist students who may be struggling with alcohol or other drugs.
The Student Wellness Center staff may assist in assessing a student's pattern of use/abuse. Based upon this assessment, the student will be provided with treatment recommendations which could include, but are not limited to, services on campus and/or a referral to an off-campus treatment program or licensed treatment professional. The Student Wellness Center staff will keep all information regarding alcohol and other drug use, misuse, or abuse confidential except in cases where it has been determined that there exists a serious potential and/or immediate threat to self and/or to others.

Alcohol Policy

Basic Guidelines
Alcohol's effects vary from person to person, depending on a variety of factors, including how much they drink, how often they drink, age, health status, or family history. Drinking too much can cause a range of consequences and increased risk for many problems. For more information on alcohol's effects on the body, please see the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism's (NIAAA's) related web page describing alcohol's effects on the body. NIAAA also has information about mixing alcohol with certain medicines. Students must comply with all federal, state, and local laws pertaining to alcohol possession and use whether on or off campus. Students under the age of 21 may not possess, consume, or distribute alcoholic beverages. Students who are of legal drinking age may not provide alcohol to any students or guests who are under 21 years of age

In the Residence Halls

Students 21 years of age and older may possess and consume alcohol within their private residence hall room with the door closed. Possessing and/or consuming alcohol with minors is not allowed in the residence halls. The only exception to this policy is when a person of legal age is a roommate to someone under 21. No guests may be present in this case.

To encourage moderation for students of legal age, a maximum of one case of beer or one liter of wine or liquor are allowed in a room at any one time. A case of beer is defined as twenty-four (24) twelve-ounce cans or bottles. Amounts over these limits will be confiscated by an appropriate University official. Large capacity containers such as kegs, party balls, punch bowls, wine boxes, etc. are prohibited. Drinking games, and the use and/or possession of any device designed to increase speed or quantity of alcohol consumed such as bongs, funnels, or hoses are prohibited and subject to confiscation.

Regardless of age, no one may consume or carry open alcohol anywhere on campus including residence hall common areas. Alcohol being transported on campus must be concealed from view and packaged in a manufacturer sealed container. Alcohol-free living environments have been established for first year students in Founders, Sheil and South Halls. No student, regardless of age, may possess alcohol at any time in alcohol free residence halls. The construction of bars and displays of alcohol containers, whether empty or full, is not allowed. Gatherings of over eight people where alcohol is present are not permitted in the residence halls.

Examples of Violations of the University Alcohol Policy:

- Driving under the influence of alcohol.
- Purchasing alcohol by a person under the age of 21.
- Selling or providing alcohol to a person under the age of 21.
- Possessing either full or empty alcohol containers by a person under the age of 21.
- Consuming alcohol by a person under the age of 21.
- Showing impairment from alcohol use on campus or at any University-sponsored event.
- Showing physical or mental impairment following or resulting from alcohol use.
- Possessing empty alcohol containers for decorative purposes.
- Using or possessing common large quantity containers, including kegs, party balls, punch bowls,
- wine boxes, etc.
- Participating in or being present during any drinking game.
- Possessing an open container of alcohol in a common area, including bathrooms, hallways, lounges, elevators, lobbies, or outdoor spaces.

Local Ordinances and State Statutes

The Lewis University Police Department has authority to enforce Illinois state statutes and Village of Romeoville local ordinances. Students violating state and local laws related to drugs and alcohol may be subject to arrest and criminal prosecution in addition to university student conduct action.

Romeoville Code of Ordinances:

Chapter 112 – Alcoholic Beverages 112.20 PURCHASE OR ACCEPTANCE OF GIFT, CONSUMPTION PROHIBITED; EXCEPTIONS. (A) Any person to whom the sale, gift, or delivery of any alcoholic liquor is prohibited because of age shall not purchase or accept a gift of alcoholic liquor or have alcoholic liquor in his possession. Any person purchasing, accepting delivery of, or having possession of alcoholic liquor shall be in violation of this section. (B) No person under 21 years of age shall consume alcoholic liquor. (C) The possession and dispensing or consumption by a minor of alcoholic liquor in the performance of a religious service or ceremony, or the consumption by a minor under the direct supervision and approval of the parents or parent of the minor in the privacy of a home is not prohibited. (Ord. 430, passed 12-4-74; Am. Ord. 710, passed 1-16-80) Penalty, see § 112.99 (A)

Minimum Legal Drinking Age

Even with this flexibility for the States, Congress retains the power to use financial and tax incentives to promote certain alcohol policies, such as the minimum legal drinking age. The Federal Uniform Drinking Age Act of 1984 sets the minimum legal drinking age to 21, and every State abides by that standard. According to this Act, the Federal government can withhold ten percent of Federal funding for highways from States that do not prohibit people under age 21 from buying or publicly possessing any alcoholic beverage. While every State abides by this standard, State law varies on specifics about possession and exceptions to the law, such as allowing people under 21 to drink with their parents. To learn more about Alcohol Policy in the United States, visit NIAAA's Alcohol Policy Information System (APIS) (235 ILCS 5/6-16) (from Ch. 43, par. 131) Sec. 6-16. Prohibited sales and possession.

Parental Notification Policy

In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), the Dean of Students (or designee) will notify the parents/guardians of students under 21 years of age when the student is found in violation of the alcohol policy. Additionally, the Dean of Students (or designee) may notify parents/guardians of students, regardless of age, of any incident in which the student is in violation of the University drug policy.

University Student Conduct Process

The student conduct process seeks to provide a fair, speedy, deliberate, and non-prejudiced adjudication. The goal is to provide education and better decision-making on the part of the student. University alcohol policy violations and potential sanctions for violations of the policy are listed below. Conduct action is dependent upon a number of factors, including, but not limited to: hearing officer discretion, the nature and severity of the incident, a student's conduct history, and a student's cooperation throughout the conduct process.

Misrepresentation of Age by a Minor

Both Illinois state statutes and Village of Romeoville local ordinance prohibit minors from misrepresenting their age for the purpose of purchasing or receiving liquor. Students violating this provision could face criminal charges in addition to University conduct action.

Falsifying Identification

Falsifying, defacing, or altering University- or government-issued identification for the purposes of purchasing or receiving alcohol is prohibited and could result in both criminal charges and University conduct action.

Driving Under the Influence:

The Lewis University Police Department has the authority to enforce state and local traffic laws, including statutes prohibiting driving while under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Students violating these statutes could be subject to arrest and prosecution. Additionally, students will face University conduct action. A student under the legal minimum drinking age found to have any detectable amount of alcohol in his/her system could be subject to penalties under Illinois statutes, including driver's license suspension.

Illegal Drug Policy

Many drugs can alter a person's thinking and judgment, and can lead to health risks, including addiction, drugged driving, infectious disease, and adverse effects on pregnancy. Information on commonly used drugs with the potential for misuse or addiction can be found here. https://nida.nih.gov/research-topics/college-ageyoung-adults or https://nida.nih.gov/research-topics/co-occurring-disorders-health-conditions https://www.niaaa.nih.gov/health-professionals-communities/core-resource-on-alcohol/alcohol-medicationinteractions-potentially-dangerous-mixes

The use, possession, sale, transfer, or manufacture of any drug or paraphernalia commonly associated with illegal or restricted drugs is prohibited. Being under the influence of an illegal or controlled substance is also prohibited, even if the drug or substance was used off campus. The Cannabis Regulation and Tax Act (410 ILCS 705/) authorizing individuals over the age of 21 to recreationally use marijuana and the Compassionate Use of Medical Cannabis Pilot Program Act (410 ILCS 130) do not change this prohibition or authorize a student to use cannabis. Federal law, including the Safe and Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act (Title IV, §§ 41114116, 20 U.S.C. 71117116), continues to prohibit marijuana possession or use on campus. Illegal drugs include cannabis and cannabinol derivatives, illegal controlled substances, and legal controlled substances that are unlawfully possessed or distributed (such as prescription medications).

Examples of violations include:

- Misuse of over-the-counter drugs.
- Misuse of household products as intoxicants.
- Misuse or sharing of prescription drugs.
- Possessing, using, being under the influence of, distributing, or manufacturing any form of illegal drug.
- Possessing paraphernalia (i.e., rolling papers, pipes, bongs, hypodermic syringes, spoons, etc.) for intended or implied use of any form of illegal drug.
- Possessing paraphernalia that contains or appears to contain illegal drug residue.
- Purchasing or passing illegal drugs from one person to another.
- Sale, transfer, or manufacture of illegal drugs.
- Possession of cannabis.

In addition to university disciplinary action, students are subject to criminal prosecution under federal, state, and local law for any offenses involving illegal drugs on university property or at any University event. Recognizing the need to address violations related to the use or possession of illegal drugs, the University is also committed to the education and well-being of all our students in this regard. In partnership with students, departments including Student Life, University Police, Mission and Ministry, Residence Life and the Student Wellness Center work together to provide various alcohol and drug prevention education and awareness activities and initiatives.

Alcohol and Other Drug Policy Sanctions

An initial offense with no aggravating factors is heard at Case Review Level. Possible resolutions and institutional actions include, but are not limited to:

- Completion of Educational project (online program)
- Authorship of a research/reflection essay
- Advising Session
- Official Reprimand or Warning
- Other sanctions as determined by the adjudicator. If there are aggravating factors, the case may move to an Administrative Resolution Meeting. Aggravating Factors Include:
- Combined with a drug violation
- Previous incident with the alcohol or other drug policy
- More than one incident or behavior is alleged
- History of policy violations. Subsequent Offenses are heard at the Administrative Resolution Meeting Level. Possible sanctions and institutional actions include, but are not limited to:
- Referral to Student Wellness Center 25
- Completion of the two-part Brief Alcohol Screening & Intervention for College Students (BASICS) assessment.
- Authorship of a research/reflection essay
- Completion of online educational materials
- Notification of parents/guardians of students under 21 years of age
- Other sanctions as determined by the adjudicator. Continued incidents or incidents with additional Aggravating Factors may be heard at the Conduct Board Hearing Level. Possible resolutions and institutional actions include, but are not limited to:
- Restrictions from university housing
- Possible removal from university housing or expulsion

Amnesty for Students Seeking Assistance during Emergencies

The health, safety, and welfare of our students and community are paramount. As such, all Lewis students are expected to alert appropriate officials in the event of any health or safety emergency — specifically including those involving the abuse of alcohol or drugs — even if violations of the Student Behavioral Standards may have occurred in connection with such an emergency.

Because the University understands that fear of possible disciplinary actions may deter certain requests for emergency assistance, the University has adopted the following policy to alleviate such concerns and promote responsible action on the part of students.

In a situation involving imminent threat or danger to the health or safety of any individual(s), students are generally expected (1) to contact emergency officials by calling University Police at extension 5911 or (815) 836-5911 to report the incident, (2) to remain with the individual(s) needing emergency treatment and cooperate with emergency officials, so long as it is safe to do so, and (3) to meet with appropriate University officials after the incident and cooperate with any University investigation.

If students follow this procedure, no formal University conduct actions or sanctions will be imposed for alcohol or drug infractions. The incident will be documented, and educational, community, and health interventions — as well as contact with a student's parents or family — may be required as a condition of deferring disciplinary actions or sanctions. The protocol does not protect repeated, flagrant, or serious violations of Student Behavioral Standards (including physical or sexual assault, violence, hazing, harassment, theft, or vandalism or instances where multiple individuals need medical attention), nor does it preclude or prevent action by police or other legal authorities.

Failure of students to take responsible actions in an emergency situation where action is clearly warranted, however, may void all protections under this provision and may lead to further conduct action when such failure to act otherwise constitutes a violation of University Behavioral Standards.

Amnesty for Students Seeking Substance Abuse Assistance

The University encourages students who believe they have a substance problem to seek assistance. If a student brings his or her own use, addiction or dependency to the attention of University officials outside of the threat of drug tests or imposition of conduct action and seeks assistance, conduct action will not be pursued.

A written action plan may be used to track cooperation with any recommended treatment, evaluation or follow-up for students involved in such incidents. Failure to follow the action plan may nullify the protection from conduct action.

HAZING

Lewis University is committed to fostering a safe, inclusive, and respectful environment for all members of its community. All acts of hazing, including by any individual student, varsity athletic team, club sport team, or university-registered student club or organization and any of its potential members, members, or alumni, are prohibited. All members of the community are entitled to be treated with consideration and respect, and no individual may perform an act that is intended to cause ridicule or humiliation, physical or psychological harm, or social ostracism to any other person within the university community.

Hazing is any action taken or situation created, either intentionally or unintentionally, on or off campus, to produce physical discomfort, embarrassment, ridicule, or possible physical harm or injury as a requirement for belonging to a group.

Individuals will be held accountable for their actions, and neither citing the activity as a "tradition" nor being coerced by current or former students or student leaders of such groups or organizations will suffice as a justifiable reason for participation in such activity.

Varsity athletic teams, club sport teams, registered student clubs or organizations, and any other official university group will be held accountable and could have their recognition suspended or revoked.

Examples of prohibited behavior under the hazing category include but are not limited to:

- Physical abuse, including but not limited to paddling, slapping, kicking, choking, scratching, branding or tattooing, exposure to extreme (i.e. cold or hot) water temperatures, the consumption of disgusting and/or dangerous concoctions or requiring another to engage in any form of forced physical activity or exercise, forced or pressured consumption of alcohol, or Any activity that involves sexual harassment, assault, or exploitation.

- Causing excessive mental stress, including but not limited to placing prospective members of an organization or group in ambiguous situations which lead to confusion and emotional stress, sleep deprivation;

- Verbal abuse, including but not limited to shouting, screaming or use of derogatory, profane or obscene language; or

- Subservience, including but not limited to any activity which promotes a class system within organizations or activities which facilitate inappropriate levels of authority over students. Misuse of authority by virtue of one's leadership position, preventing an individual from attending class, and failing to report any of the foregoing behavior to the appropriate University officials.

Any form of hazing that occurs via electronic means, including social media, text messaging, and email, is also prohibited. This list is not exhaustive, and any student, team, group, club, or organization found to be involved in any hazing activity will face conduct action. Violation of this policy exists irrespective of the voluntary or consensual participation in the hazing activity by the person being hazed.

Any person with knowledge of hazing is expected to report it promptly to the Dean of Students. If the incident requires immediate attention or involves a threat to anyone's safety, contact LUPD directly at 815-836-5911. Failure to report hazing is a violation of this policy. Retaliation against someone reporting hazing is strictly prohibited.

State of Illinois

(720 ILCS 5/12C-50)
Sec. 12C-50. Hazing.
(a) A person commits hazing when he or she knowingly requires the performance of any act by a student or other person in a school, college, university, or other educational institution of this State, for the purpose of induction or admission into any group, organization, or society associated or connected with that institution, if:
(1) the act is not sanctioned or authorized by that educational institution; and (2) the act results in bodily harm to any person.
(a-1) It is not a defense to a prosecution under subsection (a) that the person against whom the hazing was directed consented to or acquiesced in the hazing.
(b) Sentence. Hazing is a Class A misdemeanor, except that hazing that results in death or great bodily harm is a Class 4 felony.

(Source: P.A. 103-765, eff. 1-1-25.)

Reporting Hazing

Any individual who believes they have been hazed or who has witnessed hazing should report the incident immediately. Reports can be made to:

- The Office of Student Life
- Campus Police
- A faculty or staff member
- The Dean of Students
- The Title IX Coordinator
- Office of Residence Life and Student Conduct
- Completing an Incident Report

Lewis University will publish in the Annual Security Report any hazing incidents that comply with the Clery Act definition of hazing, starting in October 2026. The ASR will include stats from the previous three calendar years.

Lewis University will publish a Campus Hazing Transparency Report.

Investigation and Disciplinary Procedures

All reports of hazing will be thoroughly investigated through the Dean of Students office and/or Human Resources. Investigations will include interviewing those reported to be involved, those who may have witnessed the incident, and those responsible for the organization/group/team. The University will utilize resources, such as camera footage and keycard access logs, in the investigation.

The University will follow its established disciplinary procedures through Student Conduct and/or Human Resources for students, faculty, and staff found to have violated this policy.
Disciplinary actions may include, but are not limited to:

- Educational Project
- Community Service
- Warning
- Probation
- Suspension
- Dismissal
- Termination of employment
- Loss of recognition for a student organization/group/team

Reports of criminal activity will be reported to law enforcement.

Prevention and Education

Lewis University will provide annual education and training on hazing prevention for students, faculty, and staff.

Varsity athletic teams, club sport teams, registered student clubs and organizations, including advisors and coaches, will be required to participate in annual hazing prevention training, including bystander intervention.

The University will promote a culture of respect and inclusivity that discourages hazing.

The University will provide resources to varsity athletic teams, club sport teams, registered student clubs and organizations, on alternative team building activities.

FIRE SAFETY

Overview

The Higher Education Opportunity Act (Public Law 110-315) requires all United States academic institutions to produce an annual fire safety report outlining fire safety practices, standards, and all fire-related on-campus statistics for residential facilities. The following public disclosure details all information required by this law as it relates to Lewis University.

Student Housing

All resident students and Residence Life staff receive fire safety training each academic year. Each student is given access to the Student Handbook and the University Emergency Planning webpage, which include information on fire safety and appropriate action to take during a fire alarm or fire emergency. E mergency evacuation maps are installed in residential buildings to direct occupants to primary and secondary exits. Residential fire drills are conducted annually.

Fire Alarm and Protection Systems

General Description: Fire alarm systems consist of manual and programmable pull stations, visual/audible alarm devices, addressable smoke detector/sound bases and smoke/heat detectors in individual sleeping rooms, corridors, common area and mechanical spaces.

Fire Alarm Testing and Inspection: Pull station, horns, strobes, bells, smoke/heat detectors, batteries and fire alarm panels are inspected semiannually and annually. Smoke detectors are cleaned, inspected and tested annually. All inspections and testing are performed by a certified fire alarm company in accordance with National Fire Alarm Code NFPA 72.

Automatic Sprinkler System and Fire Pump: Automatic sprinklers are tied into the fire alarm system. The sprinkler systems and fire pumps are inspected and tested semiannually by a certified inspection company in accordance with NFPA 13A.

Residence Hall Fire Safety Policies

Candles and Incense

The possession or burning of incense or candles is not permitted in the residence halls. Any candles or incense located in student rooms will be confiscated and disposed of.

Electrical Appliances/Cooking

Due to the dangers associated with overloading the electrical circuits and cooking in the residence halls, only the following U/L listed electrical appliances are allowed in the rooms: clocks, radios, stereo equipment, televisions, DVD players, personal computers, heating pads, razors, hair dryers, irons, study lamps, coffee pots, small hot pots, and popcorn makers. Ceiling fans and air conditioners are prohibited.

Care should be exercised by residents not to overload outlets; multi-socket outlets should not be used at any time. U/L listed surge protectors or power strips are recommended. Extension cords are prohibited. The cooking of meals in residence halls is expressly prohibited except in the common residence hall kitchens. Barbecuing is allowed outside of the residence hall provided the rights of other residents are not violated (i.e., noise, litter). Barbecuing near the windows of the residence halls is prohibited. Combustible materials and liquids such as lighter fluid are not permitted in residence halls.

Micro-fridges are provided in each residence hall room, except in North Hall, where suitemates share a full-size microwave and refrigerator. No other refrigerators/microwaves are permitted. Food may be kept in the rooms provided that such food is not left open and perishable food is properly refrigerated. No torchiere halogen lamps are permitted as they present a fire hazard. Additionally, no space heaters are permitted unless issued to students by the Residence Life or Facilities staff.

In Case of a Fire on Campus

In the event of a fire, smoke or an explosion, stay calm and activate the nearest fire alarm pull station.
Call police at extension 5911, (815) 836-5911 or 911.

Follow posted room/building evacuation routes and account for all occupants of the room. Do not use elevators.
If trapped in a room, close as many doors as possible between you and the fire. Place cloth material around and under the door to stop smoke from coming in. Signal from windows and call to advise police of your location.
Provide assistance to individuals with disabilities in relocating to specified refuge areas and notify police of these individuals and their location.

If you must pass through smoky area, stay low and breathe shallowly using cloth or fabric as a filter.
Before opening any door, check first to see if it is hot to the touch. If the door feels hot, do not open it!
Never re-enter the building once you have evacuated it unless instructed to do so by emergency personnel.

Whenever a fire alarm is sounded, all persons must evacuate the building in a safe and orderly manner through the nearest fire exit to an open area away from the building. The Residence Life staff in conjunction with University Police will oversee the evacuation of the residence hall areas. Obstructing and/or disregarding the instructions of firefighting personnel, police or Residence Life staff will result in disciplinary action and possibly arrest.
Fire Department personnel, along with Lewis University Police personnel, will determine when it is safe to re-enter the building. If a false alarm is witnessed, this violation should be reported to the police immediately.

Lewis University is required to annually disclose statistical data on all fires that occur in on-campus student housing facilities. Listed below is a summary of all fire alarm activations and fire investigations reported by the Lewis University Police Department in 2023.

CRIME STATISTICS

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION CLERY DEFINITIONS

Campus

- Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area and used by the institution in direct support of or in a manner related to the institution's educational purposes, including residence halls; and
- Any building or property that is within or reasonably contiguous to the area identified in paragraph (1) that is owned by the institution but controlled by another person, is frequently used by students and supports institutional purposes (such as a food or other retail vendor).

Non-campus

- Any building or property owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the institution; or
- Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, the institution's educational purposes, is frequently used by students, and is not within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution.

Public Property

All public property, including thoroughfares, streets, sidewalks and parking facilities, that is within the campus, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus. Public property, for purposes of data collection and this report, does not include businesses or private residences adjacent to the campus.

Clery Act Crimes and Reportable Locations (Definitions)

Definitions of Clery Act Reportable Crimes

Provided crime data tables reflect the mandatory reporting offenses as specified in the Jeanne Clery Act. The tables display crime data over the past three calendar years and are separated by Act-defined locations; see the Locations section below. Additionally, Lewis University reports statistics on theft at all Lewis University locations, including Romeoville, Chicago, Aurora, and Albuquerque, though not statutorily required. The most common crime reported on campus is theft of unsecured property. In an effort to reduce the occurrence of theft and to raise community awareness, Lewis University voluntarily includes theft data in this report. As required by the Act, the data reported on liquor laws, drug laws, and weapons offenses represent the number of PEOPLE arrested or referred to campus conduct authorities for respective violations, NOT the number of incidents documented.

Crimes Defined

Murder: The willful (non-negligent) killing of a human being by another. Note: Deaths caused by negligence, attempts to kill, assaults to kill, suicides, accidental deaths, and justifiable homicides are excluded.

Manslaughter: The killing of another person through gross negligence. Gross negligence is the intentional failure to perform a manifest duty in reckless disregard of the consequences as affecting the life or property of another.

Sex Offense Definitions From the National Incident-Based Reporting System Edition of the Uniform Crime Reporting Program

Sex Offenses-Forcible: Any sexual act directed against another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will; or not forcibly or against the person's will where the victim is incapable of giving consent.

A. Rape- Penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.

B. Forcible Fondling- The touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, forcibly and/or against that person's will; or, not forcibly or against the person's will where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her youth or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity.

Sex Offenses-Nonforcible: Unlawful, nonforcible sexual intercourse.

A. Incest-Nonforcible sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.

B. Statutory Rape-Nonforcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

Robbery: The taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person by force or threat of force or violence and/or by putting the victim in fear. The taking of personal property in the possession of another, from his/her immediate presence, and against his/her will, accomplished by means of force or fear. (Includes attempts)

Aggravated Assault: An unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm. It is not necessary that injury result from an aggravated assault when a gun, knife, or other weapon is used which could or probably would result in a serious potential injury if the crime were successfully completed. An unlawful assault upon the person of another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. (Includes attempts, and whether or not an injury occurred.)

Burglary: The unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or a theft. For reporting purposes, this definition includes: unlawful entry with intent to commit a larceny or a felony; breaking and entering with intent to commit a larceny; housebreaking; safecracking; and all attempts to commit any of the aforementioned.

Motor Vehicle Theft: The theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle including all cases where automobiles are taken by persons not having lawful access, even though the vehicles are later abandoned - including joyriding.

Arson: Any willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a dwelling, house, public building, motor vehicle or aircraft, personal property of another, etc.

Dating Violence: The term ‘‘dating violence’’ means violence committed by a person:

A. Who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and

B. Where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:

(i) The length of the relationship.

(ii) The type of relationship.

(iii) The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Domestic Violence: A felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed by:

1. A current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim
2. By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common
3. By a person who is cohabiting with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner
4. By a person similarly situated to a spouse or the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.
5. By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

Stalking: Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:

1. Fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or
2. Suffer substantial emotional distress.

Hazing: Any intentional, knowing, or reckless act committed by a person, whether individually or with others, against another person or persons, regardless of their willingness to participate, that:

1. Is committed in the course of an initiation into, affiliation with, or maintenance of membership in a student organization; and
2. Causes or creates a risk, above the reasonable risk encountered in the course of participation in the institution of higher education or the organization, of physical or psychological injury.

Clery Act Reportable Arrests and Referrals Defined

Drug/Narcotic Violations: Violations of state and local laws relating to the unlawful possession, sale, use, growing, manufacturing, and making of narcotic drugs. The relevant substances include: opium or cocaine and their derivatives (morphine, heroin, codeine); marijuana; synthetic narcotics (Demerol, methadones); and dangerous non-narcotic drugs (barbiturates, Benzedrine).

Alcohol Violations: The violation of state laws or ordinances prohibiting: the manufacture, sale, transporting, furnishing, possessing of intoxicating liquor; maintaining unlawful drinking places; bootlegging; operating a still; furnishing liquor to a minor or intemperate person; using a vehicle for illegal transportation of liquor; drinking on a train or public conveyance; all attempts to commit any of the aforementioned. The Clery Act does not require the reporting of public drunkenness or driving while under the influence offenses.
Weapons Violation: the violation of state laws or ordinances dealing with weapon offenses, regulatory in nature, such as: manufacture, sale, or possession of deadly weapons; carrying deadly weapons, concealed or openly; furnishing deadly weapons to minors; aliens possessing deadly weapons; all attempts to commit any of the aforementioned.

Clery Act Reportable Hate Crimes Defined

Hate Crime: A crime involving one or more of the above listed crimes (in "CRIMES DEFINED" section), the crimes of theft, simple assault, intimidation and/or vandalism (see below) reported to local police agencies or to a campus security authority that manifest evidence that the victim was intentionally selected because of the perpetrator's bias against the victim. The categories of bias include the victim's actual or perceived race, religion, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, ethnicity, national origin, and disability.

- Larceny-Theft: (Except Motor Vehicle Theft): The unlawful taking, carrying, leading, or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another. Attempted larcenies are included. Embezzlement, confidence games, forgery, worthless checks, etc., are excluded.
- Simple Assault: An unlawful physical attack by one person upon another where neither the offender displays a weapon, nor the victim suffers obvious severe or aggravated bodily injury involving apparent broken bones, loss of teeth, possible internal injury, severe laceration, or loss of consciousness.
- Intimidation: To unlawfully place another person in reasonable fear of bodily harm through the use of threatening words and/or other conduct, but without displaying a weapon or subjecting the victim to actual physical attack.
- Destruction/Damage/Vandalism of Property: To willfully or maliciously destroy, damage, deface, or otherwise injure real or personal property without the consent of the owner or the person having custody or control of it.

Hierarchy Rule for Multiple Offenses - When counting multiple Clery Act reportable offenses, the FBI's UCR Hierarchy Rule is applied. This rule requires that only the most serious offense be counted when more than one offense was committed during a single incident. The hierarchy rule does not apply to incidents involving Arson, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Stalking and any incidents involving Hate Crimes. These crimes are always counted in addition to, and regardless of the nature of, any other Clery reportable offenses that were committed during the same incident.
