

Opportunities for Engagement

SPRING 2018

This year's Lasallian reflection focuses on the creation of sustainable communities and the radical changes in demographics and the environment. It also encourages Lasallians to respond to these issues and offers questions for personal and community reflection.

LASALLIANS WITHOUT LIMITS

MEMORIAL FOR BROTHER JAMES MILLER, FSC

MON • FEB 12

3:30 PM • Brother James Miller Chapel

Located in Convocation Hall –
St. Charles Borromeo Center

THE HEARTBREAK OF HUMAN MIGRATION: MERCY WITHOUT LIMITS

TUES • MAR 27

2–5 PM • AS 158A

Viewing of the documentary,
The Human Flow with introduction by Hind Makki, author at Patheos.com and the Founder and Curator of Side Entrance

LASALLIAN LUNCH – A DISCUSSION ABOUT LASALLIANS WITHOUT LIMITS

WED • MAR 21

NOON • President's Dining Room

Participants will enjoy lunch while discussing Lasallian Reflection No. 3 “Lasallians Without Limits” hosted by Dr. Kurt Schackmuth, Vice President for Mission. Visit lewisu.edu/omi for more information.

SIMULATIONS OF THE REFUGEE CRISIS

MON • MAR 26

9AM-1PM

5PM-7PM • D'Arcy
Great Room

Simulation of the refugee crisis will allow participants to follow a refugee family on their journey to safety. The simulation sessions will take about 50 minutes, including a reflection activity at the conclusion.

Contact Sr. Emily Brabham, OSF if you would like to arrange for your class to participate in the simulations outside of these scheduled times.

SEEING WITH THE EYES OF CHRIST

WED • APRIL 11

3 PM • D'Arcy
Great Room

Homelessness...it's more than just a talk. It's a lived experience. Join us at this life-changing presentation featuring John Donahue-Grossman

Visit the Office of Mission and Identity's webpage at lewisu.edu/omi and click on the “Lasallian Reflection Series” link on the left.

LEWIS UNIVERSITY

All faculty, staff, and students are welcome

For more information about these any engagement opportunities, contact Margaret Grabowski at (815) 836-5944 or grabowma@lewisu.edu.